

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Antwan, best known as Tez to family and Cheese to friends was a beloved son, father, and Friend who was born on February 9, 1977, in Cincinnati Ohio. He departed this world untimely on August 23, 2026. His life was a testament to resilience, humor, and love, and he will be profoundly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him.

Tez was the cherished, son of Dale Cavins and the late Ongaleeta Richardson. His family was the cornerstone of his life, and he held dear the memories of those who preceded him including his mother Ongaleeta, Sister Tyshawn Richardson, brothers Reco Richardson, Clifton, Cavins, Raymond McNeil and his nephew Capone Richardson.

Educationally, Tez attended Bloom and Heberly as a child and profoundly obtained his GED in 2006. He was a dedicated union employee for the past five years, embodying hard work and commitment. His time at the Federal Bureau of Prison was transformative leading him to a convert to Islam, A faith that brought him peace and purpose.

Tez's passions were as diverse as they were fulfilling. An avid fisherman he found serenity in just the simple pleasures of standing by a lake. He was a boxing enthusiast convinced he could match the powers of Floyd Mayweather. His love for cars was evident in his ever-changing collection, and he was an ardent fan of the rapper NAS.

Known for his quick wit and unmistakable charm, Tez's laughter was unforgettable. He was down to earth, unafraid to speak his mind, and his love for his children was boundless. His presence was a gift, and his legacy will continue to inspire those who knew him.

Tez is survived by light of his life his children Javier Richardson, Raheem Richardson, Montiasia Richardson, Jonesha Ferguson, Sierra Bishop; His father Dale Cavins; siblings, Corey Richardson, Janice Wise, Danny Cavins, Valencia McNeil and his five beautiful grandchildren, Jay'Onna, Jae'Ceon, Journey, Chloe and Cari and a host of loving nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Although never married, Tez maintain close and loving partnership with his youngest children's mothers. Tez's life was enriched by a circle of diverse companionships, and lifelong friends who were a source of immense joy and support throughout his journey.

His legacy of love, kindness, ideology, and his laughter will forever live in our hearts.
