

CELEBRATION of LIFE

I MISS MY DAD

Although I cannot see you
Feel your hugs or kiss your face
I'll imagine you're beside me
An unseen presence I will embrace

The night before you left us
Asleep no words were spoken
A gentle kiss placed on your head
Heavens gates stood halfway open

Reflections of that morning
Before dawn you slipped away
Still replay through my daily thoughts
I will never forget that day

Cannot begin to tell you
Just what that has meant to me
The painful process of letting you go
The hole in our family tree

I miss your hugs, I miss you voice
Your genuine "I love you"
The simple spring lost in your step
The illness got to that too

I don't wallow much in sorrow
You wouldn't have wanted that for me
Your wish to remain the strong one
Is the one you said I would be

And though some days it's difficult
I still want to call on you Dad
Your swift untimely departure
Makes me reflect on just what I had

His Journey

Tony Samuel Brady, born on December 16, 1971, in the Bronx, New York, passed away on February 18, 2025, in Alexandria, Virginia. He was a cherished son, father, brother, uncle and friend, whose vibrant spirit and infectious laughter touched all who had the pleasure of knowing him.

Tony received his education through Fairfax County Public Schools and graduated from West Potomac High School in Alexandria, VA. He dedicated his career as a security guard, where his personable nature and inherent ability to connect with others made him a beloved figure among colleagues and patrons alike.

A true jokester and a kid at heart, Tony was known for bringing joy and laughter into any environment. His friendly, outgoing demeanor allowed him to engage in conversation with complete strangers, making them feel as if they had known him forever. He had a remarkable talent for making people feel comfortable, creating a warm atmosphere wherever he went.

Tony was a man of many interests and hobbies. He found joy in watching cartoons and relished the great horror classics of the 80s, such as those featuring Jason and other iconic characters. A passionate wrestling fan, he thrived on competitive entertainment and often entertained friends and family with stories and fond memories of his favorite matches. Additionally, he enjoyed playing video games like Call of Duty, immersing himself in the exhilarating digital world for countless hours. His love for hip-hop and unwavering support for his favorite football team, The Washington Commanders (formerly known as the Redskins), were central aspects of his daily life. Whenever he was not engrossed in these activities, he could be found fishing peacefully, enjoying his time outdoors, or savoring a good cigar.

Tony is survived by his children, Allan Brady and Victoria Brady (spouse Lawana Rose); granddaughter, Asia Johnson; mother, Carol Brady; siblings, Courtney Brady, Drake Garner, Minion Garner, along with a host of nieces and nephews who will carry his memory forward.

He was preceded in death by his father, Samuel Garner, whose legacy of love and guidance will continue to inspire his family.

REMEMBERING Tony

“TO THOSE WHOM I LOVE & THOSE WHO LOVE ME”

by Anonymous

When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do,
You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears,
But be thankful we had so many good years.
I gave you my love, and you can only guess
How much you've given me in happiness.
I thank you for the love that you have shown,
But now it is time I traveled on alone.
So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It is only for a while that we must part,
So treasure the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away for life goes on.
And if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near.
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear,
All my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and a 'Welcome Home'.
