Wanda Walker was born on February 29, 1960 to the late Benjamin and Helen Scott in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life peacefully on September 13, 2023.

Wanda was educated in the Catholic school system at St. Francis Xavier School. She continued her education in nursing as an LVN. She worked in home health providing care. Wanda had a passion for cooking and entrepreneurship. She manifested her passions and dreams, she executed multiple businesses.

Wanda was united in love to the late Herbert Walker in 1989. They were united for 31 beautiful years. The definition of true love and marriage. A never-ending love Peach & Herb.

Wanda enjoyed traveling with her kids and husband. She adored spending time with her family and friends. Her grandkids were her world. She lived to see them smile. She loved spending time and spoiling them.

Wanda enjoyed cooking. If you had a meal from her you were hooked for life. She was compassionate and giving. Her door was always open. She loved music. The kitchen and her oldies were her favorite duo.

Wanda was a natural caretaker. She loved caring for others. She was the best person to talk too. She had the gift of setting you straight, making you laugh then feeding you all in the same sitting. She was one of a kind. She made her mark on your heart if you encountered her. She was unforgettable. No matter the circumstance you could depend on her. She was self-less and resilient. She had a charismatic spirit. She was affectionately known as the Queen of Baltimore. If you were here for this era, you had a good time with her.

Mommy, my heart is broken. You were my mother, my best friend and my queen. It was always us. You were the peanut butter to my jelly. Your arms were always open when I needed a hug. You understood my heart. You could love me and teach me lessons all in the same breath. Your love and strength have guided me. You gave me peace. I will love you forever. Tell my daddy I love him. You will forever be the queen of my heart.

Love, Your Doll Baby Ella

Grandma, your eyes would light up when you saw us. You smothered us with non-stop love. You went out of your way to see us smile. That can never be replicated. This is what we valued most. No matter the situation we could always run to you. You kept us together as a family. No one could be the grandmother you were to us. We will miss and love you forever. Please hug Grandpa Herby and Jayviahn for us.

Love, Your Grandkids

Hey Wanda girl you are finally at peace. I'm going to miss you so much. I want to thank you for the wonderful life you gave us. We ran this race. You did amazing. I'm going to make you so proud. You were always my biggest motivation. Thanks for loving me. Forever my favorite girl.

Love, Donnie B

Dear Momma I was upset that I couldn't see your face one last time. I know when I walk outside you will be my sunshine. I'm writing these words as I cry in my cell. I could call you when my day was going wrong. You would tell me to block the evil and pray son. My last words to you were, I Love You & you told me you Love me more. I'm your first born for sure. It is you I will adore until God comes knocking at my door & we're face to face once more.

Love, Boodha

If roses grow in heaven Lord, please pick some for me. Place them in Wanda's arms and tell her there from me. Tell her that I love and miss her and when she turns to smile place a kiss on her cheek and hold her for a while. Remembering her is easy, I do it every day. But this ache in my heart will never go away.

Love, Averille

Hey Ma thanks for all the joy. I love you and I miss you from your heart broken baby boy. Thanks for all the tough love and helping me learn lessons. You were my Mother that was my biggest blessing. Glad you finally happy and smiling up in heaven. Kiss my dad for me, glad you back with legend.

Love, J.R.
