

The Lords Prayer

Our Father who art in Heaven
hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in Heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever.

Amen

Beloved daughter, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother.

She loved her family to infinity and beyond!!

Her daughter, Cori, was her best friend, and she treasured her grandkids. She made every holiday and birthday fun, festive, and full of gifts. She will be missed for her unique style, delicious meals, naked brownies, funny stories and her hugs and kisses.

A Caregivers Love

In Loving Memory of Suzanne Elaine Spivak March 2, 2026, 00:26

Four years, three months, and eight days ago, Suzanne Elaine Spivak began her journey here at the Landmark. A spunky auburn-haired socialite who hailed from Palm Springs, California. Suzanne made the move to be closer to her beloved daughter Cori and son-in-law Dan.

From the moment she arrived, Suzanne made sure we would never forget her.

Affectionately dubbed "The Purple Lady" for her unwavering commitment to the color, Suzanne was full of sass, surprise, and unmistakable personality. She kept us on our toes every single day. With Suzanne, you never quite knew where you stood-she loved us, she hated us, and sometimes she managed both at the very same time. And somehow, that was just part of her charm.

She had a soft spot for babies and puppies, delighted in a good bowl of ice cream, and eagerly looked forward to the homemade cookies Dan faithfully brought each week. Suzanne was wonderfully eccentric, deeply fond of art and literature, and often preferred her own quiet company.

Her passing brings a gentle sense of peace-a relief that she is whole again and reunited with her daughter, who preceded her in death last year. While we find comfort in that reunion, her absence leaves a space that simply cannot be filled.

Suzanne was unforgettable. She was vibrant. She was complicated.
She was ours.

And she will be Deeply missed
