JOHN E. CANNEDY, III

Obituary

His perfect smile and resonate voice made him unforgettable. And most would say his style evoked positive nods, both on and off a runway.

Our beloved John (Jonathan) E. Cannedy, III, the first born son of John E. Cannedy, Jr. and Delores Jean Cannedy-Lowry transitioned so terribly unexpected for us all.

Born August 17, 1962 in Cincinnati, Ohio he was educated in his hometown, Anchorage, Alaska and Somerset, Kentucky:

- Elmendorf Elementary
- Madisonville Elementary
- Ferguson Elementary & Middle School
- Pulaski High School (8th)
- Withrow High School (9th)
- Aiken High School (10th-12th)
- Cincinnati Technical College (now Cincinnati State)

Though a Cub Scout, baseball & tennis player, his true passion was fashion and modeling. And he was known to hit a smooth "manequin" on the runway.

John's professional career included being a service attendant at Bob's Soho, transporter in Bethesda Hospital's imaging department, as well as telemarketing, before finding his niche in the hospitality industry. He served as a Concierge Attendant with Marriott Cincinnati Rivercenter in Covington, Kentucky, loved by many of his regular concierge suite guests.

Jonathan received Jesus Christ as his Savior, was baptized and remained a faithful member of Bibleway Church Of God In Christ. A strong tenor, the choir was his happy place, and he was found both singing and directing the mass choir, many Sundays. A favorite of the congregation that displayed his outstanding directing gift was "He's Able".

Remember sadness is always temporary. This, too, shall pass.

~ Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

I'LL FLY AWAY

Verse 1

Some glad morning when this life is o'er
I'll fly away
To a home on God's celestial shore
I'll fly away

Chorus 1

I'll fly away O glory
I'll fly away (in the morning)
When I die hallelujah by and by
I'll fly away

Verse 2

When the shadows of this life have grown
I'll fly away
Like a bird from prison bars has flown
I'll fly away

Chorus 1

I'll fly away O glory
I'll fly away (in the morning)
When I die hallelujah by and by
I'll fly away

Verse 3

Just a few more weary days and then
I'll fly away
To a land where joys shall never end
I'll fly away

Chorus 1

I'll fly away O glory
I'll fly away (in the morning)
When I die hallelujah by and by
I'll fly away
