

Miss Me But Let Me Go
When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.

THE OBITUARY

Robert Frost was born on September 22, 1955 in Cincinnati, Ohio to Lonnie Frost Sr. and Gussie Mae Vicks(Frost). He was the sixth born of five boys and four girls. He accepted Jesus Christ at an early age and carried the love of the lord with him through out his life.

He attended Garfield Elementary, Heinold Jr. High and Hughes High School. He worked at Arcadia Manor Nursing Home for 35 years and four years at Twin Towers Retirement Community and retired for medical reasons. He is most known for his cooking, fixing cars, building and fixing houses. He loved music, the Cincinnati Bengals and his family, his passion for cars was amazing, so he started auto mechanic school receiving his degree in auto and diesel mechanic. He loved his daily tv shows, Alfred Hitchcock, Twilight Zone and Andy Griffith, cowboy movies and was an amazing gardener.

He was loved by all he didn't consider you a friend he would call you family. Anything you needed he would make sure you had it, he was known as Paw Paw to all. He will truly be missed by all.

He leaves to cherish his great legacy five daughters, Robin, Rossalyn, Tracey, Qionna, and Lakida; one son Richard Smith Sr., his loving 23 grandchildren, 7 great grandchildren, sisters, Sandra(Dennis) Frost Batchlor, Patricia Houze, Cleo Frost, brothers, Larry(Nipsey(Frost), Terry(Deborah) Frost, nieces, nephews, other family members, and special friends. He was proceeded in death by his mother, Gussie Mae Vicks Frost, father Lonnie Frost Sr., brothers Richard(Rickey) Frost, Lonnie Frost Jr.(Goonkie) and sister LaWanda Wise, a special step dad; Jimmy Green, grandparents, Ruby and Alex Vicks, and great nephews Terry Frost III, and Isaiah Frost Jr.
