

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me
lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23

Ruth Christine Williams

Ruth Christine Williams, 94, of Sedalia, MO, passed away on Saturday, March 15, 2025, at Sylvia G. Thompson Residence Center in Sedalia. She was born on February 2, 1931, near Knob Noster, MO, the daughter of Arley Edgar Sanders and Eula Almyra (Means) Sanders, who preceded her in death.

On May 24, 1951, in Columbia, MO, she was united in marriage to Guy Houston Williams, who preceded her in death.

Ruth, a proud graduate of Green Ridge High School in 1948, was a member of the Calhoun Baptist Church. She was a woman of many interests and hobbies, which she pursued with great passion. She enjoyed vegetable gardening, canning, baking, cooking meals, crossword puzzles, and listening to the radio. She also enjoyed attending church and reading her Bible. Her close companionship with her husband was a testament to her love for being a housewife. They cherished their farm life, and Ruth's zest for life was especially evident in her deep love for her family and grandchildren, which she always expressed with warmth and affection.

Ruth is survived by a daughter, Anita Jordan; a grandson, Brent Jordan; a granddaughter, Lora Pfeifer (Matt); and two great-grandchildren, Valarie and Levi; four sisters; one brother; numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

In addition to her husband and parents, Ruth was preceded in death by a son, Richard Williams; three sisters and one brother.
