

Miss Me - But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.

Life Reflections

Audrey Evett Edwards Brunson, the daughter of the late Leroy Edwards, Sr. and Vivian B. Edwards, was born on September 6, 1958. She peacefully departed this life on July 27, 2026.

She was educated in the public schools of Sumter, South Carolina. She attended Croswell Elementary, McLaurin Junior High and Sumter High School. She later went on to attend Sumter Area Technical College (Central Carolina Technical College) where she earned her Associates Degree.

In her earlier years, Audrey worked for RTA and Sumter School District 17 as a bus driver. She later went on to work at Nepco and Gold Kist for many years. She was later employed at Eaton Corporation for over 20 years working in various departments until her retirement in 2019.

On April 17, 1977, she married the love of her life, Tyrone Brunson. Together they have shared 49 years of marriage.

She was loved and cherished by her family and friends. She especially enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren and great grand children. She loved watching the news and keeping her family informed about current events, world affairs, and politics.

She leaves to cherish her memories, her devoted husband, Tyrone Brunson; one daughter, Lakisha (JL) Thrower of Sumter, SC; two grandchildren, Audrianna (Dominique) and Christopher (Kevionna) of Sumter, SC; two great grandchildren, Ariyah and Dominique, Jr.; one sister, Antoinette Farmer of Sumter, SC; four brothers: Perry (Helen) Edwards, Mark Edwards both of Sumter, SC, Joshua Edwards of Fort, TX, Robert (Verneshia) Tindal of Sumter, SC; a loving aunt, Rosa Lee Hairston; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Vivian Edwards; father, Leroy Edwards, Sr.; brother, Leroy Edwards, Jr.; and grandmother, Jennie Lee Bethel.
