

A Smile Remembered

He never met a stranger,
Just a friend not yet known,
With laughter and with stories,
His kindness was shown.

The joy that he sparked
Will forever remain,
In smiles and in laughter,
We'll speak of his name.

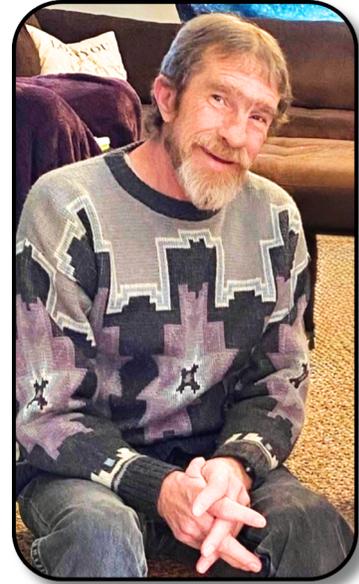

The table is quiet,
The cue stick at rest,
But the love that he gave us
Will always be best.

He lived life with humor,
A heart open wide,
With friendship and warmth
Always by his side.

Though days may feel heavy
And nights hard to bear,
We'll find him in memories,
In laughter we share.

So let us keep smiling,
The way he would do,
For his greatest gift given
Was joy through and through.

In Loving Memory

Obituary

Kenneth Robert Sorenson, of Evanston, Wyoming, passed away on August 11, 2025, at the Huntsman Cancer Institute with his daughter and son-in-law lovingly by his side.

He was 67 years old. Kenny was born on May 4, 1958, in Ruislip, England, to Earl Sorenson and Joan Sorenson. In his younger years, he worked in the mines and later spent time bartending, where his outgoing nature and quick wit made him a natural behind the counter. He eventually built a long and steady career with Walmart, where he made many lasting friendships.

Kenny had a gift for making people laugh and always brightened the room with his humor and stories. A talented pool player, a good listener, and someone who never met a stranger, he will be remembered for the warmth and joy he shared with everyone around him.

He is survived by his daughter, Marina Dawn Vaughn, and her husband, Colton John Vaughn; his two grandchildren, Brayden James Vaughn and Allyson Ann Vaughn; his sisters, Debbie Talbot and Amy Archuleta; and his brothers, Joseph Sorenson and Michael Sorenson.
