Nathaniel Timothy Bond passed away on October 7, 2026, in Brigham City, Utah. He was born on September 24, 1975, at Mountain Home Air Force Base in Elmore County, Idaho, to Charles Floyd Bond and Kristie Swenson Bond.

Nathaniel graduated from Box Elder High School in 1995. On October 12, 2002, he was united in marriage to Michelle Consuelo Romero in Brigham City, Utah. He worked as a dishwasher at Wingers and was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, where he was active during his youth.

An enthusiastic BYU football fan, Nathaniel brought passion and enthusiasm to his many hobbies. He was an avid watch collector, enjoyed bowling, playing video games, and watching movies, especially horror films. He had a deep appreciation for the outdoors and loved camping, river rafting, bike riding, and going on long walks.

Nathaniel is survived by his wife: Michelle Romero; son: Dalen S. Bond; parents: Charles and Kristie Bond; siblings: Jonathan R. Bond, Jeremy M. Bond, Trystan A. Bond, Michael O. Bond, Zachary J. Bond and Elysa A. Thompson; and grandfather: Keith D. Bond Sr.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents: Ivan and Barbara Swenson and Beth Voneta Disinger.
