Acknowledgments

The family wishes to express its deepest gratitude for the prayers, kind words, expressions of love, and thoughtful gestures during this time of bereavement. You have been a blessing, and we are thankful. Our prayer is that our Heavenly Father bestows blessings upon each of you for your acts of kindness. THE FAMILY

GONE TOO SOON

Words cannot describe the loss I feel
Saying farewell to you,
But heaven chose to give you wings
And now it's time you flew.
I wish that we could have more time,
That God had let you stay.
Forever would not be long enough
But I would take one day.
I wish I had just one more chance
To see that tender smile,
To laugh with you again my dear
Just for a little while.
Gone too soon, but not forgotten,
Forever you will remain,
My guiding light, my shining star,
Until I see your face again.

A Life to be Remembered

Bryant Keith (Kesie) Blassingame was born July 31, 1974, to Deloris Blassingame and William Blassingame II, in Reynolds, GA. After an extended period of illness, he slept peacefully into the arms of Jesus on April 28, 2026 in Macon Georgie. Kesie was known for his love of dressing up in the coolest clothes, hats, and shoes. He took great pride in his wardrobe. He loved watching football, especially the Atlanta Falcons. He enjoyed spending time with his family and socializing with others in his community. He had the heart of a gentle giant. He will be dearly missed by many. He attended the public schools of Crawford County. At an early age, he joined Ross Chapel Community Church. He is preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Ruby Lee Shannon and Eugene Shannon, Sr, and his paternal grandparents Carlicia Blassingame and William Blassingame Sr.

He is survived by his devoted parents Deloris Blassingame and William Blassingame II; siblings: Pamela (Dontae) Colbert and William Blassingame III; aunts: Bobbie Jean Shannon, Carla Huntley, Mary Ann Blassingame, and Katherina Lumpkin; uncles: Bobby Day, Melvin Blassingame, and Donnie Blassingame; nieces: Deshon Grant and Katie Blassingame; nephews: De'Anthony Grant and De'Angelo Grant and a host of of cousins and other relatives.
