

In Loving Memory

Lonnie D. Frazier, Sr.

Sunrise: May 19, 1980

Sunset: July 29, 2026

My Life Story

Lonnie D. Frazier Sr., was born to Raymond and Patricia (Frazier) Caldwell in Amarillo, Texas on May 19, 1980.

A dedicated HVAC Technician, adept Forestry Firefighter, and skilled maintenance worker, Lonnie took pride in his work and the service he provided to his community. His passions also extended to his family, whom he cherished deeply.

In the summer of 1996, Lonnie crossed paths with Trisha Lackey at his mother's residence. A beautiful bond formed, leading to their marriage on September 24, 1999. Together, they welcomed three beautiful children: Cheyanna, Isaiah, and Lonnie Jr., along with bonus child Dylan. Lonnie was a devoted father who instilled values of kindness and determination in his children.

A gentle soul with a profound love for nature, Lonnie had a special fascination for eagles, symbolizing his lofty aspirations and strength. He also found joy in the simplest pleasures of life, particularly in savoring a refreshing drink of Coca Cola.

Mr. Lonnie D. Frazier Sr., after 46 years of life, went to be with the Lord on Wednesday, July 29, 2026 from Muskogee, Oklahoma with his loving family near his side.

Lonnie was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Reba (Hines) Frazier and Sterlin Frazier; his maternal great-grandparents, Lonnie & Vergy Parsons; his paternal grandmother, Nancy Caldwell; his maternal great-great-grandparents, Paul & Mary Ruby Frazier; as well as his nephew, Lil Sterlin Coil, and his great-niece, Brinleigh Nichols.

Lonnie's legacy lives on through his loving wife, Trisha A. Frazier; his children, Cheyanna Isaacs and her husband Jake, Lonnie Frazier Jr., Isaiah Frazier, and Dylan Perry and his wife Maryah; and his cherished grandchildren, Heavenlea, AJ Isaacs, and Noah Shearrer; his parents, Raymond and Patricia (Frazier) Caldwell. He is also survived by his siblings: Cassandra & Chris Bunch, David & Tabatha Caldwell, Audrey & Matthew Brown, Zachary Caldwell, and Victor & Brandi Caldwell. He leaves behind a host of cousins, aunts, uncles, relatives, and friends, all of whom will remember him with love and gratitude.

