Proverbs 13:31

"Honor her for all that her hands have done, and let her works bring her praise at the city gate".

A Mother's Love

"A mother's love is always with her children. Losing a mother is one of the deepest sorrows a heart can know. But her goodness, her caring, and her wisdom live on-like a legacy of love that will always be with you. May that love surround you now and bring you peace."

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern, prayers, and kindness shown to them during this hour of bereavement.

Obituary

Shirley Mae Harris was born December 25, 1943 to Annie Gland Harris and James Harris She was raised by her grandmother Mary Peoples, and grandfather Lem Peoples.

Shirley attended Cincinnati Public School and graduated from Withrow High School, briefly attended Central Tech.

Shirley spent the majority of her adult life being a devoted and caring mother. She raised 8 children which was the focus of life.

She was a very strong, independent woman everyone that met her, knew she was very out-spoken, at any time she would express what was on her mind.

Her doors were always open for family and friends. She enjoyed cooking for her children, being with her grandchildren also listening to music. She enjoyed drinking her Wiedemann beer back in the days with her family and friends.

Shirley leaves behind a lifetime of memories for her family to cherish.

She is preceded in death by her parents Annie Harris and James Harris, also 3 of her children Alicia Harris, Douglas (Kym) Harris, and Shirley (Missy) Killings, also life-long companion Isreal Killing Jr, and all her siblings James (Jonna) Harris, Delores Tucker, Ann Harris, Lela Harris, Peggy Jordan, and Charles Harris.

Shirley is survived by her sons: Clarence Harris, Joseph Harris, Mark Harris, Jason (Nikki) Harris, Johnathan Killings, and Micheal Killing & a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and several great-great-grandchildren.
