Obituary

Raised in rural Yazoo City, MS, Joyce Jean Campbell was the third child born, on February 10, 1967, to the late great Harvey Lee, Sr. and Nellie Mae Barnes Williams. Also, proceeding her in death; her bother whom she spoiled the most; Henry "Pip" Williams. The sweetest and most caring woman of all, Joyce had a fervent love for the Lord, and she loved nurturing and caring for her family. Always unselfishly putting others first until the end, our family pillar departed her earthly vessel on Saturday, May 7, 2022.

Never meeting a stranger, Joyce took care of and shared her mothering nature to everyone she met. At any early age, she accepted Christ at Shady Grove M.B. Church in Yazoo City, MS. Joyce Jean (Williams) Campbell graduated with the Yazoo City High School Class of 1986. In 1987, she married the love of her life, Henry "Jughead" Campbell. To this union, 5 children were born; Janella, Samuel, Gabriel, Gabriella and Ly'Nell Campbell.

In 1992, Joyce became and continued to be a faithful and dedicated servant of Word of Truth Full Gospel Church. Joyce nurtured, cared for, supported, and prayed for her children so much so that she became a Parent Liaison for Yazoo City High School. It was there that she thrived; becoming a mother to so many students, athletes, teachers, parents, and staff. She also spent the past 15 years working for Seward Farms as a private sitter to her other children: Christopher, Mary Elizabeth, Jack, Sam & Knox.

Joyce always wore a smile and continued to pour into the lives of others with support, wisdom and spiritual advice. She was so very much loved by her family and she took pride in taking care of her family. Joyce loved to attend sporting events of her husband, children, nieces and nephews; and she would cheer loudly so they would know that she was there.

The beautiful, kind, supportive, loving, caring Wife, Mother, Sister, Friend, and Proverbs 31 Woman, Joyce Jean Campbell, will forever be missed. Her legacy will carry on and her memories will be forever cherished by husband, Henry Campbell; her children: Janella (Cordrin) Lawton; Samuel, Gabriel, Gabriella and Ly'Nell Campbell; step children, Kimberlie Watson, Cortney (Jeffrey) Anderson, Darrius Shepard; her siblings Harvey Jr. (Linda) Williams, and Debra (Ed) Smith; her sister and brothers-in-law, Tommy (Mary) Campbell, Charles (Annette) Campbell, Margaret Woods; her aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews; the Seward Family, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Tributes

To My Wife - My gift from God,
When your soul left your Earthly body, a part of me was taken that won't ever be replaced. I thank God for giving you to me for 35+ years. A million words won't ever be enough to describe how much you mean to me. You are my best friend and the person who stole my heart. I will miss your caring and loving spirit. You took care of me in sickness and in health, with no hesitation. God knew it was time for you to come home, because you weren't truly mine. You were always His and I know you are at peace. You will always be in my heart. I will love you always and forever. Until we meet again.

Love Your Husband, Jug

Momma, I was the first child you brought into this world. The blueprint of you will forever be in my DNA. Every morning my mother woke up the devil said, "oh no she's awake". You are the source of my strength, my resilience, my beauty and my brain.

Love Your First Daughter Janella

Momma, A mother not just to her own, but to any she encountered. I am truly blessed to have you as my mother.

Love Your First Son Samuel

Momma, you were always a great example of what it means to serve others.

Love Gabriel

Momma, there's never been a mother that's as beautiful, strong, loving, enduring and faithful as you. When I questioned myself, my life, or my spirituality you always reassured me of what it meant to be a child raised by you.

Love Gabby

Ma, your toughness made me tough, although I was your baby you gave me the strongest parts of you. Watching you continue to remain my mom when your body was failing, was the best display of strength a child can see.

Love LyNell

Joyce, you may not have given me the gift of life, but LIFE has given me the gift of you. It's not DNA, flesh or blood but the heart is what makes us family. You knew my heart...that's why this is so hard.

Love Courtney & Kim

God blessed you as my grandmother.

You chose to be my personal nurse.

You chose to pray for me.

You chose to be at the hospital.

You chose to be the best you can be for me during my sickness. But God also chose you, I'll always love you and miss you.

Love Josenlyn

Tributes

Grandma Joyce, you are now in a better place, but your memories will forever be in my heart. Thank you for your sacrifices, your love and everything that you have done for me.

You will be truly missed.

Love Khaleea & Lil Jesse

Sister, since you were born, we have always been close, but the older we grew the stronger the bond between us became. You've shared our joy and sorrows and stood through thick and thin. Although you were younger, you were always thought of as an older sister. We are blessed to call you sister. The lord saw your battles and gave you shelter. You were an example of strength in battle, for you endured until the end and fought the good fight of faith. We know you are resting in the arms of Jesus, so that gives us peace while we're in this Earthly place.

We will always love you.

Love Your Siblings, Harvey Williams Jr. & Debra Smith

Daughter Joyce, thanks for being my 1st spiritual daughter. You were faithful and you knew what to do. You served well and you served many. You fought a good fight; you finished your journey in strength, grace and faith. Now you can rest from your labor. I will always embrace the special memories of how faithful, dedicated and committed you were.

Love Pastor Herticene Benjamin (Mother Ben)

Tee Joyce, you have left a remarkable legacy here on earth. You loved us without a doubt as if we were your own. You showed us unconditional warm and loving care and sometimes tough love. You filled our stomachs with food and our hearts with the word of God. As children we could rely on you to teach us right from wrong. As adults you were the one we called when we needed help. You were a wonderful aunt who made it her business to make sure we were cared for. Although our hearts mourn, we are at peace knowing that you are at peace in your heavenly home with the God you spoke about daily. You will always be remembered and cherished as Tee Joyce- The one who was always involved. We know you will continue to keep an eye on all of us.

Love Your Nieces & Nephews

Tee Joyce, you always gave so much of yourself to me! More than a Tee; more like a Momma. From riding us around in your van, caring for me when I was sick, making sure I had a meal or my favorite snacks, and always calling to check on me daily. Whenever my parents weren't around, you were there; always! I could count on Tee Joyce to organize it, pray for us, fix it, or mend it. You are the perfect example of a virtuous and selfless woman. You took care of me and my kids. Thank you for EVERYTHING you've done for us. We will miss you calling us and miss seeing you, but we rejoice knowing that Tee Joyce is reunited with Granny, Granddaddy, and Uncle Pip. We will miss your wisdom. Thank you for helping to nurture this family and taking care of us. We love you ♡ forever Tee Joyce.

Love Your "1st Niece" Spike (Kaneilia)
