

You can shed tears because they are gone,
or you can smile because they lived.
You can close your eyes and pray they will come back, or you can open your eyes and see all that they left for you. Your heart can be empty because you can't see them, or you can be full of the love you shared. You can turn your back on tomorrow and live for yesterday, or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday. You can remember only that they are gone, or you can cherish their memory and let it live on. You can cry and close your mind and feel empty, or you can do what they would want.
Smile, Open your heart, Love....and go on.

Matthew 6:34

Therefore do not worry about tomorrow,
for tomorrow will worry about itself.
Each day has enough trouble of its own.

Isaiah 40:29-31

He gives strength to the weary
and increases the power of the weak.

Even youths grow tired and weary,
and young men stumble and fall;
but those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles;
they will run and not grow weary,
they will walk and not be faint.

Memorie

Lynda Kay (Woods) Krahl, 57, of Tonganoxie, KS and formerly of McPherson and Galva, peacefully passed away on Sunday, March 2, 2025, surrounded by family at the Hospice House, Hutchinson.

Lynda was born April 12, 1967, in McPherson, KS, to Lloyd C. and Lois A. (Davison) Woods. She graduated with a 4.0 from Brown Mackie College in Salina, KS. On September 19, 1998, Lynda was united in marriage to Jeff Krahl in Las Vegas, NV.

She worked at State Farm Insurance for Jim LaDuke for 21 years, ending her time there as the Office Manager. She then worked at Farmers Alliance for four years as an Advanced Casualty Claims Adjuster. She enjoyed working at both places.

Lynda loved traveling and seeing new places. Her top two favorite trips were to Maui and taking an Alaskan cruise. She also enjoyed the helicopter tour over the Grand Canyon, the many cruises they went on, and all of their Vegas trips. She loved spending time with family and holding her new grandbabies was always one of the best feelings for her. Lynda enjoyed camping, crocheting, reading, and Saturday afternoon outings with Jeff.

She is survived by her loving husband, Jeff; three children, Jennifer Kyle (Chris) of Moundridge, KS, Chelsea Baker (Austin) of McPherson, KS, and Cory Potter (Courtney) of McPherson, KS; siblings, Judie Steiner (Joe) of Inman, KS, Larry Woods (Beverly) of Anadarko, OK, and Lisa Nelson (Dave) of Kansas City, MO;

11 grandchildren, Chase, Kennedy, Zoey, Allie, Reed, Madelyn, Jack, Liam, Amya, Kash, and Lyla; and many extended family members and friends.

She is preceded in death by her father, Lloyd Woods; mother, Lois Seibel; and beloved dog, Bobber.
