

When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a little while,
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
and hug your sorrow to you through the years,
but start our bravely with a gallant smile;
and for my sake and in my name
live on and do all things the same,
feed not your loneliness on empty days
but fill each waking hour in useful ways.
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer and I in turn will comfort to and hold you near;
and never, never be afraid to die.
for I am waiting for you in the sky!

Life Reflections

Our Beloved CALVIN HARRINGTON was born to Jasper Harrington Sr. and Laura M. Brown-Harrington on August 19, 1942. Calvin whom many knew as "Butch" was the eldest of two children.

Calvin received his education in the Philadelphia School System. Shortly after graduation, he began his career with the United States Military where he served in the Vietnam War. He earned numerous medals and awards. Butch loved telling his war stories to anyone who would listen. After returning home, Calvin then later worked as a foreman for the Philadelphia Water Department until his retirement in 2001.

In 1975 Calvin met his wife, Emma Geane Allen-Harrington whom he affectionately called, "Squeeze Bop". Together they shared five children. In 2001 they said "I Do", an "I Do" that weathered the storms of life an "I Do" that even death couldn't undo.

Pop-Pop as he was called by his grandchildren enjoyed fishing, watching his westerns and having a little "Pop- Pop" soda as he sat on the couch and jammed to his music.

Calvin was preceded in death by: his mother and father; his only brother, Jasper Herrington Jr.; and his wife Emma Geane Allen-Harrington.

Calvin leaves behind to cherish his memory: three children, Natalie Allen, Howanda Harrington-Smith and Calvin Harrington Jr.; two step -children whom he loved as his own, Lyeshala Allen and Raymond Allen; ten grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; a host of other family members and friends.

Lovingly submitted, The Family

NOTE OF THANKS.....Allen Harrington

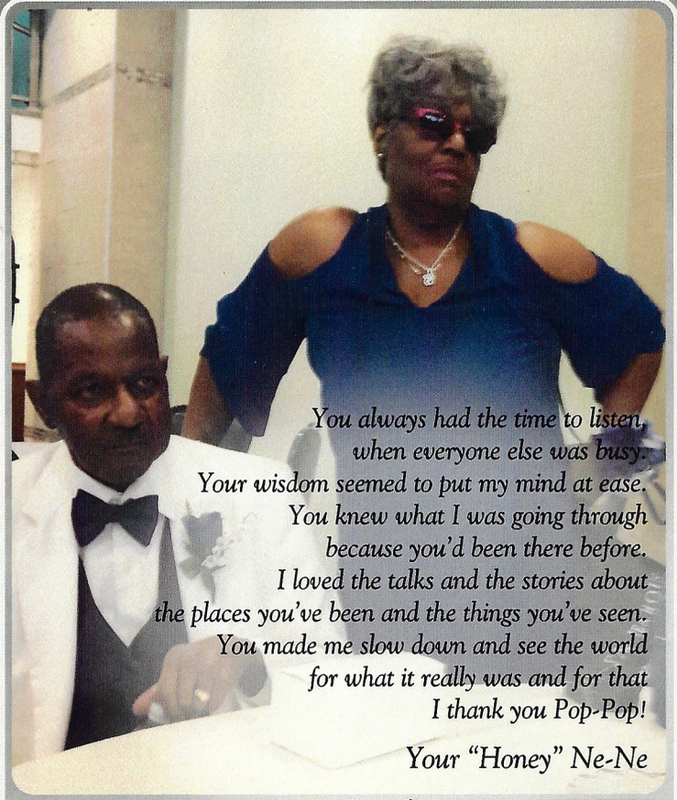

You always had the time to listen,
when everyone else was busy.
Your wisdom seemed to put my mind at ease.
You knew what I was going through because you'd been there before.
I loved the talks and the stories about the places you've been and the things you've seen.
You made me slow down and see the world for what it really was and for that I thank you Pop-Pop!

Your "Honey" Ne-Ne
