

Phyllis Eileen Mailloux was born in Holstein, NE on May 20, 1926 to William and Martha (Beirow) Halbmaier. In 1929, the family moved to Newell, SD. She graduated from Deadwood High School in June of 1945. The family held many dances in Whitewood SD, where lots of fun was had by everyone.

On November 28, 1948, she married Lynn Mailloux of Sturgis. Over the years they had two daughters. She was a homemaker, but for many years ran an in-home daycare with her eldest daughter, Linda. She enjoyed watching many of these children grow up, graduate, and start families of their own. Many of these families still continued to visit her years later. Her Christian faith was a central part of her life. There was never a week when she didn't have a Bible Study meeting taking place in her house. She was on many prayer chains throughout the years and loved her church family and friends. These wonderful people took her to church, appointments, shopping, and various places. A special thank you for the many neighbors, family, and friends who watched over her and helped her whenever she needed it. She was certainly blessed!!

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God has laid, you see.
I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found the peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief.
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts, and peace to thee.
God wanted me now,
He set me free.*
