

Thalia Jane Odell

We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And though we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

Our wife, mother, nana, and best friend crossed over beyond our sight into His beautiful presence and light on September 9. She was the steady rock of our family. She was the servant heart we all strive to be. She was our constant source of quiet strength. She taught us strength comes through pain and beauty is quiet. She will be missed here and our hearts, while breaking, are also filled with JOY from what hers is now experiencing. We feel your presence and promise to LOVE each other through it all and know you will be ready with open arms one day to hold us all again! Rest now mom! Well done!

“He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.”

Revelation 21:4 NIV
