

I Have a Friend

I have a friend! A friend who is true!

A friend I can tell every sorrow to.

I have a friend who stands by my side.

A friend to whom all things I confide.

I have a friend- one beyond compare!

Oh, World, a loyal friend is rare.

I have a friend who passed the test.

I have a friend!- I am truly blessed.

To the friends Jana met along her way.

The loyal friends, here today.

I want to say, because I know.

To all of you, she loved you so.

Thank you.

In Loving Memory
