

In Loving Memory of Our Wonderful Grandmother

Of all the special gifts in life, however great or small, to have you as our Grandmother was the greatest gift of all.

May the winds of love blow softly and whisper in your ear,
"We love and miss you, Grandmother, and wish that you were here."

Deep in our hearts, your life is kept to love and cherish, not forget. No more tomorrows we can share, but yesterday's are always there.

A silent thought, a secret tear, keeps your memory ever near. In our hearts, you will live forever.

Love, Makayla

Grandma

They say time heals,
but some hearts learn
to carry the pain instead.

Grandma, your love was a light that never asked for anything in return.

Though I can no longer hold your hand,

I will carry your strength,
and your memory
for the rest of my life.

You may be gone from my sight,
but you will never be gone from my heart.

You called me Blacky,
and somehow those two simple words
"Hey Blacky"
could make everything feel alright.

Now I would give anything
just to hear you say it one more time.

I hope you knew
how much you meant to me.
I hope you knew
how deeply you were loved.

Because you weren't just my
grandma.

You were a piece of my heart,
a part of my story,
and a love I will carry
for the rest of my days.

Rest peacefully, Vick Dawg.

Your Blacky loves you forever

Victoria's story

In the heart of Philadelphia, on April 10, 1949, Victoria Leola Smith, affectionately known as Vicky and Peewee, was born as the first light to Evelyn and Henry Harrison, the eldest of fifteen, a guiding star to her siblings. She embodied love and responsibility, ensuring all were nurtured and prepared for life's journey.

With a high school diploma in hand, Vicky dedicated over 22 years to the garment and caregiving industries, pouring her heart into every task she undertook. She was married to Cleveland Smith and was a devoted mother to three beloved daughters: Danielle, Tamara and Giselle, who graced her life with joy and laughter.

She journeyed through life with an unwavering faith, having once found solace in the teachings of the Jehovah Witness community. Vicky's heart was a sanctuary of compassion, forever open to those in need.

Vicky's spirit filled her Philadelphia home with warmth and flavor, enchanting family and friends with her culinary delights, especially her famed collard greens and comforting lima beans. Mornings began with the rhythm of music, inviting her to dance with her daughters, basking in the simple pleasures of life. Together, they cherished outings to Hiyon Seafood in South Philly, each moment a treasure of joy and connection. Her love for card games, especially pinochle, brought a playful spark to every gathering, while her signature black lipstick was always the crowning touch for her outings.

Vicky continued dancing and cooking until her health began to fail.

Sadly, her symphony of joy was dimmed by loss, as she was preceded in death by her dear parents, her daughter Tamara, and cherished siblings: Veronica, Henry, Luther, and Darren, as well as beloved friends, now dancing in the skies above.

Left to cherish her memory are:her daughters: Giselle(Timothy), Danielle(Howard) and bonus son: Carlton,Grandchildren: Brittany(Dennis),Marcellus, Carlton, Jr, Tony,Abrea, Samara, Tyler and Makayla.

Siblings: Theresa, Vanessa, William, Kevin, Giselle, Tamara, Robin, Chrystal, Nicole, a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives & friends.

Mommy's Girl

I was your baby, your youngest girl, your whole world wrapped in my world. You were my safe place, my light in the night, your love made everything feel right. We walked through life, just you and me, through laughter, tears, and memory. You were my mother, my best friend too, there was nothing I wouldn't do for you. I'll always be Mommy's girl, that will never change, though I can't hold you, your love remains.

Forever in my heart, forever near-my Mommy, my love, my everything dear.

Love, Giselle

For My Grandma

*I wasn't ready for the day You would get called home, Because in my heart, "MY Grandma" I thought you'd never leave me alone. I was your favorite grandchild, but you were so much more to me- You were my safe place, my comfort, a piece of my heart I thought I'd always keep. Now I'm left with memories, your love, your voice, your voice messages your smile- And I'd give anything in this world
just to hold you one more while. So if Heaven
has a window,
Grandma, please look down on me.
Until I can hug you again,.
keep a place beside you just for me. Forever
your grandchild, forever
your baby.
I love you beyond this lifetime.*

Love Ma
