LIFE ...

*We're here to live.
We're here to die.
Right now I'm looking down
On you all asking you not to cry.
Be joyful and thankful
Because you never know...

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

TYRONE EUGENE Williams

Tyrone Eugene Williams was born to the union of Minnie Lee and James Williams on April 18, 1968.

During his life he touched many through his humor and life perspectives. He had a love for basketball, music, and sports in general. Due to his love of basketball, he was affectionately known as "Lefty". Tyrone mentored the young men in the family and was a positive role model that provided life lessons and positive influences to guide them in life. Tyrone was an alumnus of Southwest High School.

During his adulthood, he worked at nursing homes and was employed at Overland Park Center for Rehabilitation and Nursing until he was unable to continue employment.

Preceding Tryone in death are: his father, James Williams, his brother James Jones, and grandmothers Annie Mae Martin and Mary Lee Durham, along with several aunts, cousins, and family members.

He leaves to cherish on this earthly ground: his mother, Minnie Lee Williams; siblings: Paul Williams, Angela Williams, Thomas Williams, and Tamara Williams; nieces and nephews: Diamonesha Williams-Mitchell, Harold Mitchell, D'Angelo Shears, Thomas Williams Jr., Earnesha Shears, Tacara Jones, and 5 great nieces and nephews and a host of family and friends.

Tyrone departed this earthly ground on August 22, 2025. He will truly be missed.
