

OBITUARY

Walter Loyal McLemore, a devoted father and skilled diesel mechanic, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, November 27 2024, in Grandview, Texas, at the age of 74. Born on March 31, 1950, in Decatur, Alabama, Walter dedicated over 40 years of his career to Cummins-Southern Plains, where he was known for his expertise and dedication in his field.

Walter was not only a consummate professional but also a passionate individual with a rich variety of interests. He was a gun hobbyist who found joy in building things and tackling home improvement projects, which showcased his remarkable creativity and resourcefulness.

As a loving father, Walter leaves behind his beloved daughter, Sonya Lowrance, and his son, Alan Humphries. Walter is also survived by his brother, Johnie McLemore and his wife Linda, along with his nephew, Timothy McLemore, and niece, Sheryl McLemore-Statton. His legacy will continue through his grandchildren, Bryce McLemore, Brice Humphries, and Lauren Humphries, as well as his great-grandchildren, Payton Humphries, Olivia Blocker, Isabella Blocker, Briana Blocker, Dakota Blocker, and Anthony Blocker.

Walter's military service as a Sharpshooter in the Army stood as a testament to his character, reflecting a commitment to excellence and discipline throughout his life. In remembrance of his life, Walter joins his deceased family members, including his wife Lynetta, his parents John Timothy and Annie Novella (Wooton) McLemore, and his grandson Micah Calton.

Walter Loyal McLemore will be remembered for his unwavering spirit, his dedication to family, and the positive impact he had on the lives of those who knew him. His memory will live on in the hearts of many.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm Free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day to laugh,
To love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full I've savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief.
Don't lengthen it now with grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me.
God wanted me now,
He set me free.*
