

We Watched You In Tears

In tears we saw you sinking
we watched you fade away,
our hearts were almost broken
we wanted you stay,
but when we saw you sleeping
so peaceful, free from pain,
how could we wish you back with us,
to suffer again

The Family

Mom

It's hard to hold back the tears;
when you've loved someone for so many years.
You fought a good fight, but it's time to rest.
Go, be with the one who loves you best.
Your pain and suffering has come to an end,
Finally your soul is at peace.
We all have our burdens to bear,
you carried yours to the end,
So there must be a place for you in Heaven.

God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw the road was getting rough,
the hills were hard to climb
He gently closed your weary eyes and whispered, "Peace be Thine"
"Your days of toil, your nights of pain
Your weary hours are past;
Your patient, worn out, tired frame
Has found sweet rest at last"

I Have A Place In Heaven

Please don't sing sad songs for me, forget your grief and fears,
for I am in a perfect place,
away from pain and tears.
I'm far away from hunger,
hurt and want and pride.
I have a place in heaven,
with the master at my side.
My heart is filled with happiness,
and sweet rejoicing, too.
To walk with God in perfect peace,
a joy forever new.

Lovingly Submitted, Theodore

Obituary

Sarah Yvonne Pulliam, 85, of Lakewood, NJ passed away on June 23, 2016 at Ocean Medical Center, Brick, NJ. She was born on June 11, 1931 in Denton, MD to Fred A. Fox and Mabel O. Williams.

Sarah received her formal education in Denton, MD after graduating from Lockerman High School. She graduated from the National School of Nursing in Philadelphia, PA in 1949. Sarah relocated to Freehold, NJ, where she met and married Aaron Pulliam. They started a family and moved to Lakewood, NJ.

Sarah was highly sought after for her nursing skills. Marvin Goldstein opened the Lexington Rest Home in Lakewood, NJ in the early 1970's. He recruited Sarah to assist him in founding and opening the rest home. The facility opened with 5 patients, and over the years increased to over 200 patients by the time Sarah retired.

Sarah had a heart of gold and was always willing to help all in need. She provided a lot of young women graduating from high school with their first job in the nursing field. These young women went on to become RNs, LPNs, and Nurse's Aides in the Lakewood, NJ area.

She was loved and appreciated by all that had the opportunity to know her. Sarah was also a Boy Scouts den mother for Theodore and Raymond, her two youngest sons. She touched a lot of young men in the community, such as John Marshall, a member of the Lakewood Police Department, Greg Jones, Air Force Retiree, and Clifford Reed, Chief Executive for major corporations, to name a few.

Sarah didn't stop there, she helped to found the Falcon Club Foundation in 1973 for young ladies in Lakewood high school. Gail Fox, her daughter, was a member of the organization. Dr. Gwen Jones Fox received the first scholarship award from the Foundation. Sarah never turned anyone away, and her life was filled with giving and love.

She was predeceased by her husband, Aaron Pulliam; daughter, Gail Fox; son, Gray Fox; and mother, Mabel O Williams.

Sarah leaves to cherish her memories four sons, Aaron Fox of Savannah, GA, Jerome Pulliam of Savannah GA, Raymond Pulliam of Manchester, NJ, and Theodore Pulliam of Lakewood, NJ; one daughter, Yvonne Fox of Lakewood NJ; one brother, Thomas Blanton of New Castle, DE; granddaughters, Yolanda Fox of Perth Amboy, NJ, Kimora Fox of Somerset, NJ, Keisha Jones of Manchester, NJ, Keyra Pulliam of Toms River, NJ, Janice Fox of Atlanta, GA, Fonia Fox Simmoms of Portsmouth, VA; grandson, Raymond Pulliam II of Manchester, NJ; five great grandsons, six great granddaughters, and a host friends.
