Obituary

Darryl affectionately known as “Bimbo” or “Billy” by family and friends, was the second oldest child born to Catherine Crawford and Hubert Boyd on September 16, 1951.

Darryl attended Cincinnati Public Schools as a young boy. He later went on to attend Dyer and Porter Schools before attending Taft High School. After Taft High School, Darryl entered the United States Marine Corps where he was honorably discharged in 1969. After the Marines, Darryl worked as a laborer with jobs as a custodian, painter, craftsman, drywaller, etc.

Darryl would later go on to marry, Marie Crawford and to this union a daughter was born, Monica Crawford. Darryl would also go on to have two additional daughters, Angela and Davona Mills and two sons, Alonzo Dunlap and William Johnson. Everyone who knew Darryl loved him. He was a hardworking man who enjoyed spending time with family and friends. He loved to cook, listen to old school R&B and dance. He admired and loved his older sister Pamela and watched over his younger brother, Terrance (Pinky). He was very close to his aunts, Lillian Kitchens and Alverdine Hill.

Darryl also loved to dress. When not working, he was sharp from head to toe inheriting that love from his Aunt Lillian. Darryl was also very close to his great grandmother, Estelle Crawford “Grams”.

Darryl fell ill and his health declined due to a diagnosis of cancer. Despite days of treatment for his illness, he stayed positive and never complained. Eventually, forced to have his voice box removed, he still remained positive never complaining about his situation. Despite his circumstances, he continued to work and live independently enjoying time with his family and friends.

On November 26, 2020 God called him home to rest.

Darryl was preceded in death by his parents: Catherine and Hubert and great grandmother, Estelle Crawford “Grams.”

He leaves to cherish his memories: daughters, Monica Crawford, Angela and Davona Mills; his sons, Alonzo Dunlap and William Johnson, 16 grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren, his dear and loving sister, Pamela Farley; brother, Terrance Crawford and a host of aunts, nieces, cousins and friends.
