Obituary

JOHN W. MCLEAN JR. was born May 8, 1947, in Baltimore, Maryland to John W. McLean Sr. and Julia Williams, whom both preceded him in death. God in his infinite wisdom saw fit to call John, affectionately known as “Bug”, home on November 2, 2023.

John was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He was employed by Miller and Long Construction Company where he retired after more than 20 years of service. He met and married Joanne Langley. John had five children for whom he was a constant presence in their lives. He also filled the role as father for his grandchildren and other family members. He was the true meaning of “don’t judge a book by its cover”. He seemed mean and hard, but his heart was as big as the ocean that he so loved to visit. He loved all sports, and you could hear him fussing at the television especially when the Ravens played. He was the duct tape King. He would help family as well as the community. He might curse you out first, but he always came to the rescue. He was a man who spoke his mind and lived his truth.

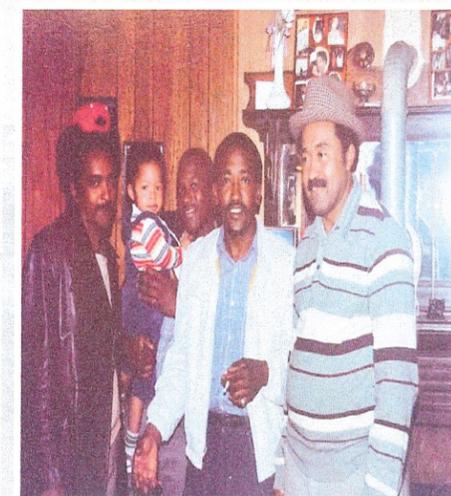

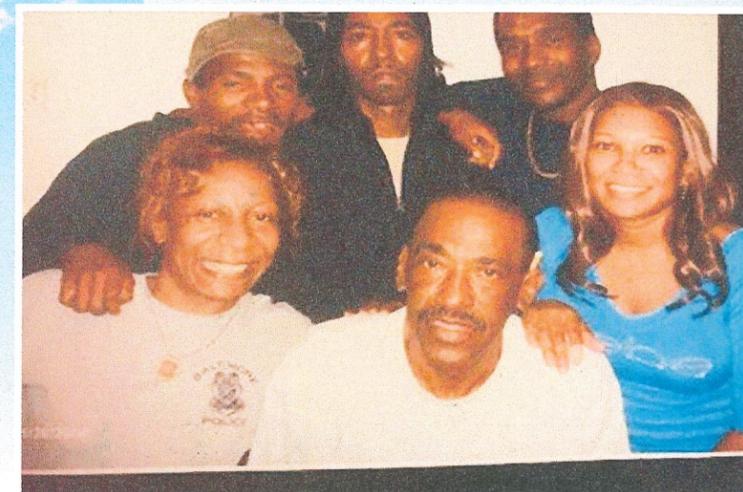

John leaves to cherish his memory: wife, Joanne McLean; five children, Kimberly, Craig, Michelle, Melvin, and Deandra Sr.; seven grandchildren, Alonzo, Deandra Jr., LarShai, Deion, Devante, Duwane and Quadre; two brothers, Kevin and Phil; two sisters Gloria and Rosemary, two sisters-in-law, Wanda and Deloris, four siblings that preceded him in death, Dave, Roger, Edward and Theola; five aunts, Gloria, Ernestine, Paulette, Anne, and Willie Mae; two uncles, Tommy and Charles; special friend, Katherine and a host of great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, family and friends.

*Your eyes are closed; your voice is still.
Your soul is at rest, though you are gone.
Our love will sustain us in our sorrow.
And our memories will keep you alive
In our hearts forever*
