A home is built on dreams of the future, memories of the past, and the ever-present strength of a father's love.

How beautiful the world would be if all loved one another as a father loves his own.

Remembering The Life Of Herman "Jr." Stubbe

December 4, 1928

August 25, 2025

Herman "Jr." Stubbe was born December 4, 1928, southwest of George to Herman and Margaret (Woelber) Stubbe. He was raised on the family farm southwest of George. He was united in marriage to Eva Schmidt on August 10, 1948, at the E.U.B. Church in George.

They resided in George until 1950, after which they moved to a farm three miles north of Matlock where they farmed for 14 years. Their family increased with the birth of their two sons, Jim and Jack. They later moved to the home place of Eva's birth where they farmed for another 14 years. During that time, Herman also started in the newspaper business, with successful careers for the Sioux City Journal and the Des Moines Register. In 1976, they moved to Sheldon and in 1979 moved to the home they built in George.

Herman was active in church work, teaching Sunday School and holding many offices. He was a faithful member of First Baptist Church in George.

He died on Monday, August 25, 2025, at the Good Samaritan Society in George at the age of 96.

Herman is survived by his two sons, Jim and Nicky Stubbe of Shorewood, Minnesota and Jack Stubbe of George, Iowa; four grandchildren, Jonie (Kelly) Wagener and Jackie (Eric) Wagener, all of Waconia, Minnesota, Jamie (Doug) Peters and Matthew (Rachel) Stubbe, all of Olathe, Kansas; two step-grandchildren, Jane Acree of Fort Wayne, Indiana, and Mark Lammert of Minnetonka, Minnesota; eleven great-grandchildren; three great-great grandchildren; two brothers, Clarence Stubbe of George, Iowa and Henry Stubbe of Vancouver, Washington; one sister, Kathryn Klaahsen of Sibley, Iowa; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Eva Stubbe; parents, Herman and Margaret Stubbe; daughter-in-law, Alethea Stubbe; sisters-in-law, Pauline Stubbe and Shirley Stubbe; brothers-in-law, Kenneth Klaahsen and Harvey J. Schmidt; and nieces, Jan Stubbe and Marianne Groen.
