VERNICE LAGWAY

"Skipper"

"As We Reflect..." Loddie

Loddie Vernice Lagway was born January 26, 1925, in Muskogee Oklahoma to Steven and Ethel Durant. Loddie was preceded in death by her parents and siblings - Spencer Durant, Mable Carlock, Homer Durant and Forrest Durant. She was also preceded in death by her husband of 70 years of marriage George Augusta Lagway. She leaves behind her beloved sister Blanche Rogers and a host nieces and nephews.

Loddie was called "Skipper" by many of her friends and family. She embodied a fun and outgoing personality. Loddie graduated from High School in 1947 and moved to Oakland, California where she met and married the love of her life G.A. Lagway. They married in March of 1955 and spent 70 years of love and life with each other.

With George serving in the Airforce, he and Loddie travel to many places which they loved; Thank you George for your service. Loddie's passion was sewing and she was an amazing seamstress making all her beautiful clothing, Loddie was loved by so many people and will be deeply missed.

The roll was being called and I heard my name
Some day you will hear the same
I have met the master, and I am healed
Remember my soul is happy and free.
