Psalm 23
The Divine Shepherd
A Psalm of David.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures;
he leads me beside still waters;
he restores my soul.
He leads me in right paths
for his name's sake.
Even though I walk through the darkest valley,
I fear no evil;
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff—
they comfort me.
You prepare a table before me
in the presence of my enemies;
you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life,
and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord
my whole life long.

Adaline Busby, 94, of Amarillo, passed peacefully on the evening of September 14, 2026.

Adaline was born on July 8, 1932, in Miller, South Dakota to Stuart and Marie (McGeary) Rudd. Adaline received her teaching certificate from Northern State Teacher's College in Aberdeen, SD and taught in rural schools before marrying and becoming the most incredible home maker, wife, and mother.

Adaline met a charming young man by the name of Carol Ray Busby and the two exchanged vows on August 30, 1954, at St. Ann's Rectory in Miller, SD. Together they shared almost 5 decades of marriage, raising their children Steve, Greg, Kevin, and Paula.

Adaline loved spending time with her family and travelling with Carol in towing along their camping trailer. They created many wonderful memories together. Adaline adored her daughter Paula. Facing the difficulty of having a child who was deaf, she refused to not be able to communicate with her and learned sign language so that she and Paula would always be able to speak to each other.

Adaline is preceded in death by her parents, her beloved Carol who passed in 2001, her sons, Steve, Greg, and Kevin, her grandson, JR, siblings, Robert Rudd, Norvin Rudd, Mary Ellen Porter, Edward Rudd, and Donald Rudd. Those left to cherish her memories are her precious daughter, Paula Busby, granddaughters, Barbara Breeze and Cathy Larson, her great-grandchildren; and her vast extended family and cherished friends.

The family wishes to thank the staff of BSA Hospice Care of the Southwest for their wonderful care of Adaline.
