

His Journey has just begun

Don't think of him as gone away -
His Journey's just begun,
Life holds so many facets -
This earth is only one.

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears.

In a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days or years.

Think how he must be wishing that we could know today,
How nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched For nothing loved is EVER lost - and he wa loved so much.

To God be the Glory for the things that He has done.

The Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a caring card, lovely message or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a captivating floral piece, if so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke a kind word,
as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all,
just thought of us on that day.

Reflections of the Life of:

Charles Edward Mills, Jr. was born on July 24, 1924 to the proud parents of the late Lelia (Donaldson) Mills and Charles E. Mills, Sr. Charles loved the Lord and gave his life to Christ at a young age. He later joined Winton Hills Community Church, under the leadership of Pastor Chip Hall. Pastor Hall had a special bond and love for Charles.

He was educated in the Cincinnati Public School System. Charles enlisted in the United States Army in 1945. During his service in the Army Charles was given the Army of Occupation Medal and the World War II Victory Medal.

Charles was a Painter and Maintenance Professional by trade. He was an avid card player, a dancer for love and a billiards player. Charles was fond of Western movies, shows and crazy about Martial Arts movies. He was a fluent swimmer. Charles loved to fellowship with friends and family.

He fell in love with and married his childhood love, L. Pearl Wardley. To that union two children were born, a son, the late Ralph L. Mills, and a daughter, Charlene Mills.

Charles later met and fell in love with Clara Lee Taylor. To this union two children were born, a daughter, the late Debbie Mills, and a son, Charles E. Mills, III.

He leaves to cherish his memory, children: James (Jennifer) Mills, Johnny Mills, Jason Mills, Garnet Taylor, and James Taylor. A very special and longtime friend, Patricia Spivey, who will continue to hold Charles in her heart.

Charles Edward Mills, Jr. has 32 Grandchildren, 31 Great Grandchildren, 12 Great Great Grandchildren and 1 Great Great Great Grandchild, and a host of extended family members and friends through his life's journey.
