

Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.*

*For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.*

*In Loving Memory
Stanley G. Restemayer
December 15, 1961 - August 1, 2024*

Stanley Gordon Restemayer, 62, of Hoople, North Dakota, entered into eternal rest on August 1, 2024. Born on December 15, 1961, in Cavalier, North Dakota, to Sterling and Mae Restemayer, he was blessed with a life marked by steadfast dedication to his family and work. A man of the earth, Stan served diligently as a farm hand for Jerry and Steve Olson for 37 years, embodying the virtues of loyalty and perseverance. His gentle presence and generous spirit, though quiet, touched the hearts of those who knew him, bringing joy and laughter to his community and loved ones.

Throughout his life, Stan's deep love for the natural world was evident in his hobbies. His days hunting, fishing, and golfing were not just pastimes, but sources of immense joy and passion. He cherished the simple moments spent with his brother Bob, 'checking the crops.' Stan's love for his great-nieces and nephews reflected his affection and kindness.

Stan's legacy will be cherished and carried on by his brothers, Duane (Rhea) Restemayer of Edinburg, ND, and Bob Restemayer of Hoople, ND; his sister, Carrie (Barry) Atherton of Devils Lake, ND; Joe Restemayer of Maxwell, TX; and his stepson, Bradley (Lori) Hannesson of Cooperstown, ND. His memory will also be honored by the numerous nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews who revered him deeply.

He joins his parents in Heaven, Sterling and Mae, and his brothers, Sterling (Bear) and Mark, who preceded him in passing.

All of Stanley's Family and Friends

Little did we know that morning that God would call you name. In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone. For part of us went with you the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide. And though we cannot see you, you are always on our side. Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same. But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.
