

Beyond the Gate

There is an open gate at the end of the road
Through which each must go alone,
And there is a light we cannot see
Our Father claims His own…
Beyond the gate our loved one
Finds happiness and rest,
And there is comfort in the thought
That a loving God knows best.

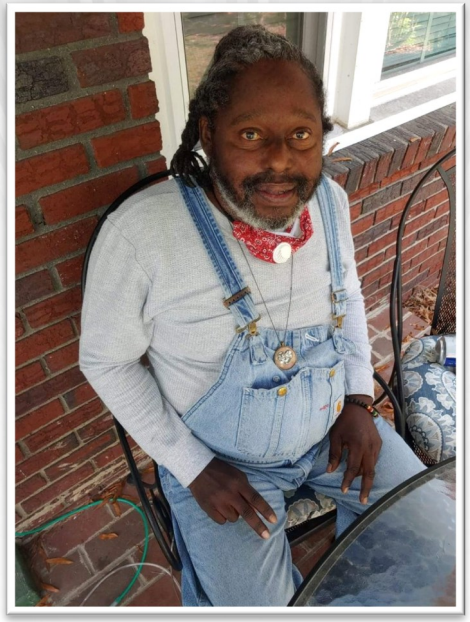

Acknowledgments

We are grateful to everyone for the kindness, prayers and support we received since the passing of our beloved Dexter.

Obituary

Dexter E. Barr was born to the late Doris Malloy Barr and Eugene Barr on June 18, 1957 in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. He transitioned from this life on September 4, 2025 after an extended illness. Dexter grew up in Winston-Salem, received his early education in the local public schools and graduated from North Forsyth High School in 1975.

Dexter was a fun-loving guy who enjoyed sitting on the front porch and talking with friends and family. He had an outgoing personality and a great sense of humor. The holiday season was his favorite time of the year because he thoroughly enjoyed eating the homemade dinners and desserts his family prepared. During the NFL season, Dexter loved to watch the games and cheer for his favorite team, which was the Las Vegas Raiders. In addition, he had an affinity for fast and exotic cars. Dexter will truly be missed by those who knew and loved him.

In addition to his parents, Dexter was preceded in death by his grandparents, Johnnie Malloy, Hattie Malloy and Elease Bostick as well as one uncle, Willie Malloy.

Those who remain to cherish his memory include two sisters: Regina Barr and Shavonne Stoddard, three uncles Johnny Malloy (Helen) and Robert Malloy (Brenda) all of Winston-Salem, Edd Cunninghan (Ann) of Hemingway, South Carolina, a devoted aunt Thomasina Malloy, a faithful caregiver, Etta Branson and a host of dedicated cousins and supportive friends.
