

Still Standing In His Grace

When the road grew weary
and the night felt long,
we leaned on the Savior,
and He gave us a song.

Through trials and sorrow,
when tears blurred our view,
He whispered with mercy,
“My child, I’ll carry you.”

Though hearts may be heavy,
we will not fall—
For God’s gentle promise
has covered it all.

No matter the storm,
no matter the pain,
His love is unchanging,
forever the same.

So now we give thanks,
with hands lifted high,
for the one we remember
has taken to fly.

Still standing, still resting
in His sweet embrace—
A soul now in glory,
kept safe by His grace.

Acknowledgements & Special Thanks

The family of Mrs. Ruth Jackson Wallace wishes to express our heartfelt gratitude for the many acts of kindness shown during our time of bereavement. We deeply appreciate every call, text, prayer, word of encouragement, card, and floral tribute that has brought comfort to our hearts. Your thoughtfulness and support have lightened our sorrow and reminded us of the love that surrounds us. A special thanks is extended to Hospice Savannah and the Candler Hospital ICU Unit for their wonderful care, compassion, and attentiveness during Ruth’s final days. Your dedication and kindness will always be remembered with gratitude. May God bless each of you for the love and support you have shown.

Obituary

Mrs. Ruth Jackson Wallace entered peacefully into eternal rest on September 28, 2025, at Hospice Savannah.

Born on November 23, 1945, in Springfield, Georgia, Ruth was the beloved daughter of the late Freddie Jackson, Sr. and Zulee Williams Jackson. She was one of fourteen children and was preceded in death by her brothers Thurmon L. Jackson and Freddie Willie Jackson Jr., and sisters Ivea L. Perry and Nellie Mae Groover.

Ruth received her education in the Effingham County School System, graduating from Central High School with the Class of 1965. At an early age, she joined St. Matthew Missionary Baptist Church in Springfield, GA, and later, she united with the Seventh-Day Adventist Church in Savannah, GA. In the late 1970s, Ruth moved to Savannah, where she began working as a seamstress in the garment industry. She later joined Ramah Junior Academy, where through hard work and dedication she rose to the position of cafeteria manager, retiring after many years of service.

Never one to be idle, Ruth pursued her passion for beauty and creativity, earning her Master Cosmetology License from Paris Cosmetology School. She went on to become the proud owner and operator of Wallace Beauty Salon and Florist, where Ruth was a woman of many talents: a gifted seamstress, crafter, cook, beautician, and florist. She poured her heart into everything she touched, and her hands created beauty both in her work and in her care for others.

Ruth's greatest joy was her family. She shared a lifelong love with her devoted husband, Nathaniel "Nate" Wallace. Together, they built a foundation of love, faith, and family that will endure for generations. She was a proud and loving mother to Tammy Wallace-Jacobs and Ray Wallace (Key); grandmother to six; great-grandmother to ten; and godmother to Kimberly Bonaparte, Tammy Wright-Ernest, and Emil "Don" Fox, Jr. She also leaves to cherish her memory her beloved siblings, Daniel Jackson, Thelma Frazier, Birdie Mae Smart (Jewel), Berline Pinkney (Columbus), Evelina Pelote, Isadell Holmes, Glover Jackson (Keaser), Christine Jackson, and Anderson Jackson; her brother-in-law, Charles A. Wallace, Sr. (Beatrice); and her sister-in-law, Beola Wallace; along with nieces, nephews, other relatives, and a host of friends who will forever remember her warmth and devotion. Ruth's life was a testament to love, service, and faith.

Her legacy will live on through the many lives she touched with her compassion, generosity, and unwavering spirit.
