

Your Mother

-Irene Conner-

Although you cannot hear her voice or see her smile no more,
Your mother walks beside you still just as she did before.
She listens to your stories and she wipes away your tears
She wraps her arms around you and she understands your fears.

It's just she isn't visible to see with human eye,
But talk to her in silence and her spirit will reply.
You'll feel the love she has for you, you'll hear her in your heart;
She's left her human body but your souls will never part.

Acknowledgements

The family of Remona would like to acknowledge your many expressions of kindness during our time of bereavement. Remona was loved by many and your support has helped us to go on. Your kind deeds, prayers and acknowledgements have truly brought us comfort in our time of sorrow.

Thank you to Reverend Dr. Hughes and the Concord Baptist Church family. Our mother has been a member of the Church for 58 years and she cherished every Sunday she was able to attend the services.

We would also like to give a special thank you to her third family, the Senior Program at the Mildred Avenue Community Center. We were able to drop our mom there on Tuesdays and Thursdays knowing she was in good hands with her "Community Center Sisters" much love.

Many people loved our mom and also looked out for her.. She had a "bonus" daughter and grandson who were also always by her side when we said she was in the hospital. Thank you!

Life Reflections

Remona Dorothea Grant Irons was born in Halifax, Nova Scotia on April 14, 1932 to Henry and Hazel Grant of Halifax, Nova Scotia.

Remona passed away peacefully in her home on Monday, August 17th with her daughter Atricia and grandson John by her side. She is now with her loving husband Angus T. Irons, Jr., her son Wellington Grant and four of her five brothers.

Remona was a faithful member of Concord Baptist Church for 58 years. She attended service every Sunday until her recent illness. She was a member of the Crusaders for Christ, Willing Workers and Greeter.

Remona in church was known as the “Hat Lady”. Every Sunday you would always find her wearing a big beautiful hat to church. She was featured in one of the local newspapers wearing one of her hats.

She is survived by her three children, Dorathea Grant, Atricia Irons and Arman Irons. Her brother Barrington Grant and Sister in Law Martha Grant of Halifax, Nova Scotia. Remona has six grand children, seven great grandchildren, one great great grand daughter, and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.
