AFTERGLOW
I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

WORDS OF THANKS
Words are inadequate to express the humility and gratitude we feel towards all our family and friends who have consoled us during our bereavement. Your prayers, love, presence, acts of kindness and service have sustained us. We saw all of this as God's love expressed through you.
Thank you and may God continue to bless you all.

LIFE REFLECTIONS

Derrick Markeith Lemon was born on December 14, 1965 to the late Issac and Louise Cummings Lemon. He was the grandson of John and Annie Cummings. Derrick was a father, grandfather, brother, uncle, nephew, cousin and friend.

Derrick received his education in Dorchester School District II. Derrick involved himself in many mail order businesses, as well as having a lawncare business and attempted real estate endeavors.

Derrick worked until the time of his terminal illness. He loved this job and his boss. He looked forward to going to work each day. Derrick was a member of Brownsville Community Church of God where he attended on special occasions. He also assisted the Trustees in setting up the Family Life Center for functions.

Derrick was one of six children, three of which preceded his death; George Lemon, Jannet Lemon and Blondell Lemon. Derrick leaves to cherish his memory two sons, Markeith Derrick Lemon, Joseph Mike Lemon, two grandchildren; Azaliea Veronica Lemon, Eva Joe Lemon; siblings, one sister Shirley Lemon Jacobs, two brothers: Dr. Anthony Lemon (Jo-Ann), Randolph (Randy) Lemon (Desiree); three nieces, Lataunya Canaday, April Jacobs-Jones (Jeffery), Dharana Lemon; two nephews Tony Lemon, RJ Lemon and one uncle, Rev. Cleveland Cummings, and a host of relatives and friends.

Brother In Arms

My brother and I, from different worlds we came,
But still we share a bond that will never fade.
Through thick and thin, we stand side by side,
With nothing to hide, and nothing to divide.

Our differences bring us closer together,
As we learn from each other, and grow stronger.
We laugh, we cry, we argue, we fight,
But in the end, we always make it right.

From childhood memories to present-day dreams,
We share it all, and nothing is what it seems.
Our bond is unbreakable, our love is true,
And there's nothing in this world we wouldn't do.

So here's to my brother, my friend, my confidant,
May our bond always thrive, and never be gone.
