The child he was, the man he became…
forever in our hearts.

With Our Love

You taught us strength,
you showed us grace,
A steady hand,
a smiling face.
Though time may pass,
and seasons change,
Your love endures,
it stays the same.
Forever in our hearts
you'll stay, Guiding us each and every day.

OBITUARY

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only forgotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." John 3:16 (KJV)

Mr. Aaron Bernard Stimpson, the son of Lillian Stimpson, was born on June 13, 1947 in Winston-Salem, NC. On October 30, 2025, at the age of 78, he completed his earthly assignments and by his faith, was positioned to receive his reward.

He began his Christian education at an early age. Through the years, as a member of Union Baptist Church in Winston-Salem, NC, he participated in many activities and ministries.

In high school, at Palmer Memorial Institute in Sedalia, NC where he loved all sports and played basketball, he was known as "Hatchet Man". After high school, he continued his educational pursuits at several institutions including: Morgan State, UCLA, and completing at Winston-Salem Teachers College (now WSSU).

Among Aaron's many adventures was his service in the United States Air Force. After completing his tour of duty, he was honorably discharged. Among his vocations, he was employed by the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County School System and as a substitute teacher, touched the lives of many local students.

Aaron is survived by his stepson, Charles of Winston-Salem, NC; his mother, Lillian Marie Stimpson of the city; one brother, Clarence Stimpson of Livermore, CA; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins including; Sonya Glenn, Valerie Best (Thomas), Minnie Ervin; a devoted cousin and caretaker, James Blackburn; and many other special friends of the city.
