

Joan Alice King of The Pas, Manitoba passed away peacefully in the Dauphin Medical Center on Friday evening April 26th, 2024 at the age of 76, after just a few hours in a medical crisis. Joan, the 3rd child of Ernest and Alice Atcheson of Prince Albert, Saskatchewan was born there on Thursday, January 1st, 1948. In 1957 Joan, while yet very young, felt moved by the Spirit of God and committed herself to following Jesus. Through the years, she has been true to that choice and it has brought her comfort, peace and direction as she faced the various chapters of life.

After attending Queen Mary Elementary School and PACI for her high school, Joan took her training as a Certified Nursing Assistant and began working in Saskatoon. In August of 1968 Joan married Dale King whom she'd known since the time when they were tiny babies in Prince Albert.

In 1971 Dale and Joan and their little daughter Lenamarie moved to the farm at The Pas, and thus began the 50 year career of farmer and farmer's wife. Daughter Janet was added to the family after the move to the farm.

Joan was predeceased by her parents, Ernie and Alice Atcheson; her sister Judy Stewart; her in-laws Russell and Ruby King; her son-in-law Warren Nunn; sisters-in-law Doreen (Arleigh) Luchsinger and Doris King.

She leaves with treasured memories, her loving husband of 55 years, Dale King of The Pas; 2 daughters Lenamarie (and her husband Warren) McNary of Swift Current, and Janet (and her husband Tom) Korvemaker of Humboldt; grandchildren Grace and Chance, Bessie, Tyler, Sarah and Mack, Fraser, Lyndell, James, Karen and Chris; 3 great-grandchildren, Anthony, Adeline and Bri.

She also leaves 2 brothers Jim Atcheson, Ed (Wanda) Atcheson; sisters Elainemarie Atcheson and Tracy Colwill; brothers-in-law Ron Stewart, Ralph (Roberta) King, Larry King, David (Norma) King, Lawrence (Lynn) King, Mike (Carol) King, Brian (Elaine) King, Dennis (Mara) King; many nieces and nephews, many cousins and a great many friends.

PRECIOUS THOUGHT

Precious thought, my Father knoweth;
In His love I rest,
For whate'er my Father doeth
Must be always best.
Well I know the Heart that planneth
Naught but good for me;
Joy and sorrow interwoven -
Love in all I see.

2 Precious thought, my Father knoweth,
Careth for His child,
Biddeth me to nestle closer,
When the storm beats wild.
Though my earthly hopes be shattered,
And the teardrops fall,
Yet He is Himself my solace -
Yea, my All in all!

3 Sweet to tell Him all He knoweth,
Roll on Him the care,
Cast upon Him all the burden
That I cannot bear;
Then, without a care oppressing,
Simply to lie still,
Giving thanks to Him for all things,
Since it is His will.

4 Oh, to trust Him, then, more fully!
Just to simply move
In the conscious, calm enjoyment
Of the Father's love,
Knowing that life's chequered pathway
Leadeth to His rest,
Satisfied the way He taketh
Must be always best.

IN THE GARDEN

What can give us hope of triumph
As we face the daily strife?
Is it not in praying always,
Keeping true in secret life?
Jesus in that night of sorrow
Wept and prayed for grace and pow'r;
Came an angel, strength imparting
For that final, trying hour.

*In the garden, in the garden,
Lies defeat or victory.
Grant us, Lord, Thy keeping ever,
To be found awake by Thee.*

2 Think of others in the garden,
Weary, waiting, watching there,
Found of Him for sorrow sleeping
In the secret place of prayer.
He the lonely watch was keeping;
He alone the price could pay.
All of heaven was beholding
As He bore our sins away.

3 We ourselves a watch are keeping
In our own extremity,
And our Father, too, will send us
Help for our infirmity.
As we think of days before us,
Ever as we journey on,
Well we know whate'er the battle,
With His help it shall be won.

ALONE WITH GOD

When storms of life are round me beating,
When rough the path that I have trod,
Within my closed door retreating,
I love to be alone with God.

*Alone with God, the world forbidden;
Alone with God, oh! blest retreat!
Alone with God, and in Him hidden,
To hold with Him communion sweet.*

2 What though the clouds have gathered
o'er me!
What though I've passed beneath the rod!
God's perfect will there lies before me,
When I am thus alone with God.

3 'Tis there I find new strength for duty,
As o'er the sands of time I plod;
I see the King in all His beauty,
While resting there alone with God.

4 And when I see the moment nearing
When I shall sleep beneath the sod,
When time with me is disappearing,
I want to be alone with God.

WHERE ALL IS PEACEFUL

Where all is peaceful, calm and still,
I rest beneath His care;
'Tis rest to know and do His will,
His joy and sorrow share.

*How sweet is the rest of God,
Safe in the Shepherd's fold –
To hear His voice and feast upon
The wealth of His love untold.*

2 My life is hid with Christ in God,
Deep hidden in His heart;
I follow in the path He trod –
We nevermore can part.

3 Amid the surging tides of life,
With Him I onward go;
Amid the turmoil and the strife,
His perfect peace I know.

4 No more I walk in doubt and fear;
His light and love divine
Assure my heart that He is near,
And tuneful praise is mine.

5 I know that He will hold my hand
And lead me all the way,
Until at last with Him I stand
In God's eternal day.
