Obituary

Marcia 'Elaine' Brown Easom Eavenson, 74, passed away peacefully on Saturday, April 25, 2026, at her home on Sunrise Court in Elberton following a brief illness. She was twice married, first for 42 years to the late Fredrick Louie Easom and second for 7 years to the late Charles Thomas Eavenson. She was a steadfast and dedicated caretaker to both of her husbands during their illnesses.

The eldest of two, Elaine was born in Elberton on February 10, 1952, daughter of the late Veal Eugene Brown and Margaret Joanne Walters Brown. She was a graduate of Elbert County High School and later earned a Specialists Degree in Education.

Elaine worked at Southeastern Power Administration for several years before pursuing her true passion for education. She taught third-grade at Beaverdam Elementary for many years. During her time at Beaverdam, Elaine worked diligently to reopen the school's nature trail and created a small pond for her students to enjoy, along the way teaching life lessons and sharing her love of nature with others.

She had a love for gardening that is evident in the many flower gardens she created at her home. Elaine was known for being particular in the most endearing way - a reflection of her care, attention to detail, and deep love for others. Once she set her mind to accomplish something, there was no changing it. She worked hard and passionately for the things she believed in.

Elaine was a dedicated member of Concord United Methodist Church. She selflessly served in various committees of the church and was most proud of her work as director of the Elbert County Food Ministry. The food ministry was extremely important to her and had become the focus of her life's work.

She is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, D. Matt and Savannah Easom; granddaughter, Cally Easom; sister-in-law, Maxine Easom; nieces and nephews: Meg Hines, Jay Brown, Katie Brown, Jesse Brown, and Kristen Brown; and Manny and Amy Lopez who were like children to Elaine. Along with her husbands and parents, Elaine is preceded in death by her brother, Mitchell Lee Brown.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters. He restores my soul. He leads me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
