

To My Dearest ParPar,

I am going to miss our bonding moments, like tutoring sessions with you and your brother, Christian, watching movies while eating our favorite snack, popcorn and our private conversations about life and God. Most importantly, I am going to miss your smile and taking my phone to take your selfies.

A piece of me is gone because you are no longer here in the natural, but I will always carry you in my heart and soul. On those rough days when I am missing you, I will remember your smile and laughter that brighten up a room.

Love always,
Nana

A great soul serves everyone all the time. A great soul never dies. It brings us together again and again. —

Her Story

Paris Amaree Nicole Folds, 18, affectionately known as Paris, was born on October 20, 2006, in Cincinnati, OH, to Chyloee Channelle Gibson and Richard Folds. She attended Schroder High School before continuing her education through ChallengeU Ohio Community School, a virtual school. Paris had been eagerly anticipating attending her high school graduation ceremony in Columbus, OH. However, on March 13, 2025, she was called to her eternal home by God.

Paris made a lasting impression on everyone she met. Whether through her humor or her directness, she always left a mark. Known for her honest, clear, and respectful nature, Paris was a true reflection of her big heart. She loved helping others and was a dedicated homebody who enjoyed spending time with her friends and family. When she wasn't at home, Paris worked at Raising Canes, where she greeted each customer with a warm smile and treated everyone with kindness and respect.

Paris is preceded in death by her great-grandmother, Juanita Scott; her uncle, Walter Johnson; her cousin, Eddie Thomas; and her uncle, John Niles.

She leaves to cherish her memory her loving mother, Chyloee Channelle Gibson; her father, Richard Folds; her two brothers, Christian Folds and Richard Folds III; her two sisters, Rashawnda Walker and Tekeila Gibson; her grandmothers, Linda Gibson and Eugenia Ridley; her grandfather, Richard Folds Sr.; as well as a host of relatives and friends who will forever remember her.
