

A Fallen Limb

IN LOVING MEMORY OF REGINALD "REGGIE" LEWIS

Another limb has fallen from our family tree,
Yet I hear Reggie's voice gently saying, "Grieve not for me."
Remember the laughter, the jokes, the smiles I shared,
The joy-filled moments and how deeply I cared.

Think of the good life I lived while I was strong,
The fishing, the cooking, the stories, the songs.
Cherish the love of family and friendships so true,
And know every moment I treasured with you.

Continue my legacy—I'm counting on you,
Keep smiling through storms; the sun will shine through.
My mind is now peaceful, my soul is at rest,
Grateful to God for a life truly blessed.

Hold fast to traditions, no matter how small,
Live boldly, love deeply—don't fear when you fall.
I miss you all dearly, but lift up your chin,
Until that sweet day when we're together again.

The Family's Message of Gratitude

We are indeed honored by your presence here today as we assemble to celebrate the life of our beloved, Reginald.
While not having him here with us will be difficult to bear, we find comfort in knowing that he is now at peace with the Lord. Your calls, cards, floral, food, visits and prayers have all served as sources of strength for us as we endeavor to accept God's will. It is our fervent prayer that God will continue to keep you in His grace and loving care.

We would like to take this opportunity to express our gratitude for the trust you have placed upon us during the Homegoing Services of your loved one. Our fondest hope is that all measures of assistance rendered your family have been completed in detail. For all your confidence placed in our staff and me, we will be forever grateful.

Life Story

... Reggie lived fully, laughed freely, and loved deeply ...

REGINALD FITZGERALD LEWIS began his earthly journey on November 11, 1964. He was the second born son of the late Tommie Lewis, Jr. and Verdell Glee Lewis. The couple raised REGINALD, along with his older brother Graylin, in Wakulla, Florida.

He was preceded in death by his father, Tommie Lewis, Jr., his paternal grandparents Tommie, Sr. and Frenchie Lewis, and his maternal grandparents Ulysses, Sr. and Hassie Glee.

REGINALD was baptized into the Christian faith as a child; he was nourished and sustained as a member of Mount Olive Primitive Baptist Church #2 in Wakulla County; he later attended Christian Heritage Church in Tallahassee, Florida.

REGINALD, or REGGIE as he was affectionately called, lived a life enriched by the love of God, family and friends. He was educated in the public schools of Wakulla County; and was employed by Florida A&M University.

Friends and family will remember Reggie as the fun-loving man they called "Weasel or Weaz". Weaz told the greatest jokes and got pleasure out of a good laugh. In his spare time he loved fishing, gardening, cooking, sharing meals and great times with his children and friends, and tending to his cats and parakeet. But in the Fall of the year, you could always find him pulling for his favorite football team, the Florida State Seminoles.

REGINALD transitioned to eternal life on Saturday, January 3, 2026. His presence in the lives of his family and friends will be dearly missed.

REGGIE leaves his legacy and unending love to his mother, Verdell Lewis of Tallahassee, Florida; brother, Graylin Lewis (Sauga) of Seattle, Washington; sister, Tanetta Lewis of Tallahassee, Florida; daughters, Kaprice Robinson and Destani Lewis both of Tallahassee, Florida; sons, sons, Terrell Lewis (Kristen) and Terrain Lewis (Michelle) all of Crawfordville Florida; grandchildren, A'ini Robinson, Alanna Lewis, Lyla Lewis, Lily Lewis, Rowan Laxton Lewis, Bella Lewis, Cannon Lewis; aunts, Jennie Jones, Evelyn Mobley (German), Lueva (Thomas); uncle: Ulysses Glee, Jr.; his former wife Tonya Lewis, his dear friends Jerry Arnett and Patricia Nieves, and a host of loved and adored relatives and friends.
