

OBITUARY

Mike Osborne, a dedicated heavy equipment operator with an illustrious career spanning 48 years, passed away on March 4, 2025, at the age of 85 in Keene, Texas. Born on March 14, 1939, in Brazos Point, Texas, Mike was known for his remarkable work ethic and commitment to his family and community.

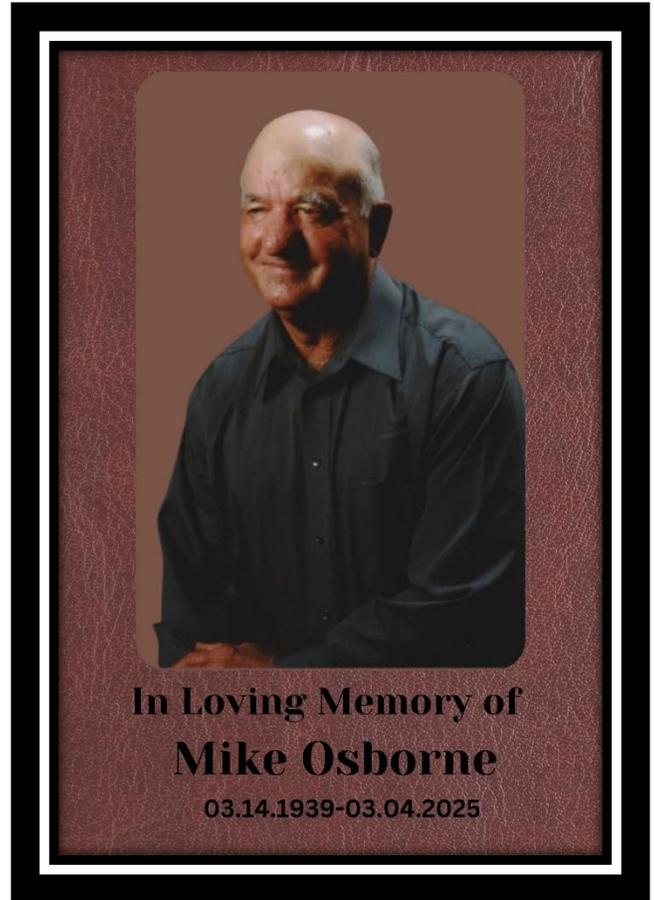

Throughout his life, Mike was not only devoted to his profession but also to his passions outside of work. A member of Vine Life Tabernacle in Glen Rose, he found immense joy in his faith and the fellowship it provided. When not operating heavy machinery, Mike embraced a life filled with building and creation. He was an avid farmer and gardener, often spending his days raising cows.

Mike is survived by his beloved wife, Ruth Ann Phillips Osborne his son, Danny Osborne, and wife Mary; his daughter, Loretta Scott, and husband Danny, grandsons, Michael Scott and wife Danielle, Taylor Scott and wife Amanda, Chris Mosteiro and wife Amanda, and granddaughter, Courtney Hill and husband Adam, his great-grandchildren, Mason Scott, Levi Scott, Harper Scott, Jaden Nebel, Avery Hill, and Marcus Hill, all of whom brought him immense joy.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Irvin "Shorty" and Ella Lee Hudson Osborne; his sister, Betty Lee Treece; and his brother, Pat Osborne.

Mike Osborne's legacy of hard work, faith, and love for his family will be cherished by all who knew him. His memory will live on in the hearts of his loved ones and in the stories shared about his life.

Goodbye For Now

My friends do not weep for me,
For I am exactly where I want to be.
I now rest high upon the mountain,
Drinking freely from God's eternal fountain.
I have no worries, no aches or pains,
Far from the world's prejudice and disdain.
Don't spend this day mourning for me,
Be happy for at last I am free.
Free from Satan's constant attack,
Free from all the things that held me back.
At last I can worship him with all of my might,
I finished the race, I won the fight.
Now I am strolling down the streets of gold,
Just watching as eternity unfolds.
Safely nestled in my father's arms,
Far away from danger and harm.
My trials and tribulations are now through,
My body is now strong and new.
My friends and loved ones, who passed before,
Were all waiting for me at heaven's door.
There we had a great reunion in the sky,
And on the wings of angel's we fly.
My love for you all is still very near,
And I am waiting for you right here.
So please, my friends, do not cry for me,
Because I am exactly where I want to be.
