Dear Unc,
This is truly hurting me. Unc, man you lit the whole room up. We could all go from crying and hurting, to you making the whole room laugh in a matter of seconds. "Life of the party" you did everything! You made me feel safe when I was with you and I always knew you had my back. I'll miss you walking in our house talking about ATL HOUSE lol. I love you.
From Your Nephew Josh,

I can't explain how much we'll miss you. You are an inspiration to the whole world. You were full of faith, courage and strength. We going to forever cherish the memories we shared. We love you so much. You'll never be forgotten. Long live Dj Hollywood baby. Love your siblings
(Trav & Little Sis)

Quincy Twymon so many names to describe you. Husband, father, brother, son, best friend, DJ, chef, coach, HOLLYWOOD most importantly an all-around good human being. Q was always ready for anything, any adventure. Every person that has met my brother, knows he treated you more than just a friend, you were his family. He treated everyone like family and I have always loved that about my brother. I have always been by my brother's side thru a lot of things, he was my best friend. Thinking about how I will never get to watch Stepbrothers or talk about The Office., or trash talk because I'm a State fan with you breaks my heart. I'm going to miss you brother. You will never be forgotten. YEAH BUDDY!

Oh, uncle Quincy, I love you in words I can't describe, words we wish we could all say before saying goodbye, but this is definitely not the last goodbye. I will miss you, I will miss your big smile, your contagious laugh, and your bright heart. I loved you because of who you were and not because of who you tried to be. You were the life of the party whether there was a party or not, you made life a party, The love you brought in from god and the love you gave, it will be remembered and it will be cherished. I can't get your contagious laugh out of my head, when you would come over for fight nights, football games, or basketball party's, you always had the loudest cheer. Thank you for the memories. I love you forever and always

Pooh Bear

I love you more than humanly possible to express. God blessed me when he brought you into my life 21 years ago. I can't wrap my mind around being on this earth without you and keep praying that I wake up from this nightmare soon. Thank you for showing me the meaning of REAL LOVE!This world wasn't ready for you, and the love you gave. I am blessed for every second I got with you. Thank you for giving me tiny pieces of you and everyone you knew. You knew that I would need all the stories. Thank you for being obedient to the Lord and leading us to Ascend Church.Watching you grow in your faith and the light of God was truly the most beautiful experience we shared. I am so blessed to be your wife. You weren't just my husband you are my reason, my why, my air, my soulmate, my best friend, my everything. You brought so much light into this dark world I know that light is shining down on me and the kids. I can't lie Pooh Bear this is the hardest thing I have ever had to do in my life. I miss you so much my soul is aching for you. All the love and support is the love you poured into this world coming back. God and you are up there showing up and showing all the way out. Thank you for choosing me. Love you forever always and a day, to the moon and back times infinity and beyond ,

Dear Dad,

Never in a million years would I think this day would come so soon. July 26th 2002 I met my first love, my best friend, my soulmate, my Superman, my protector and my idol all in one. 19 years later On Christmas Eve of 2021 you took your last breath. Hours before you took Grandma's hand and walked into heaven. You told me you loved me. I will always remember you as love, life, and laughter. I will continue to brag about you to everyone and I'll always be my daddy's girl. Although I wish nothing more than for you to be here, you live through me and when I look in the mirror I see you. Thank you for blessing me with two pieces of you (Jr and Abel). I don't know what I'd do without them. I know you and God will continue to bless and look over our family. I loved you then, I love you now, I love you forever. Until we meet again... Audi loves you!

To my Daddy,

Dad I love you and I want to thank you for everything. You showed me how to be a man, how to love you, you brought me into football. You made me love it as much as you did, although baseball was your favorite sport and I never got into it. You still pushed me in football. I thank you and love you for blessing me with my brother, my sister, and my family thank you. I love you through the ups and downs. You always told me to keep my head up, so I'm staying strong and keeping my head up I love you.

Love your Scooters (Jr)

I miss you dad, I love you dad, I want you here with me.
