OBITUARY

Elwood Lee Carpenter, 83 of Centreville, peacefully entered eternal rest on Sunday, February 25, in Easton, Maryland, at University Shore Medical Center-Easton. Elwood was known as "Abe" to most of his friends and family. He was born September 23, 1941, in Queenstown, Maryland, to late John and Helen Johnson Carpenter.

Elwood attended the public school system of Queen Anne's County. He was definitely no stranger to the area. After high school, Abe worked several jobs including Tide Water Inn, Hollys Restaurant, and Mailing Company. In June 1984, Elwood met and married to love of his life, the "apple of his eye," Betty Tilghman. He had a great love for fishing and dancing. His dancing stemmed from the "Oldie by Name Music." Elwood also loved hosting family gatherings and cookouts.

In addition to his parents, Elwood was preceded in death by his sister, Anna; two brothers, John Hilbert and James Carpenter; and one stepdaughter, Aretha Strong.

Elwood leaves to cherish fond memories with two daughters: Mary Dennis Dorsey of Richmond, Virginia, and Denise Dennis of Easton; a daughter, Missy Rasin; two stepsons, Hermione and Eddie Rasin; five sisters, Mary Farmer of Easton, Maryland, Marjorie Green of Cordova, Maryland, Helen Stanford of Royal Oak, Maryland, Dorothy Roy of Cambridge, and Martha Carpenter of Greensboro, Maryland; five grandsons; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

THE DAY GOD TOOK YOU HOME

*Those we love remain with us
For love itself lives on.
Cherished memories never fade
Because a loved one's gone.
Those we love can never be
More than a thought apart
For as long as there is memory,
They'll live on in our hearts.*
