CELEBRATION OF LIFE

Rosie Lee McCary

Rosie was born November 26, 1944, to Clarence and Virginia Purvis McCary. She is preceded in death by her parents; one sister, Addie T. Phillips; and two brothers: Willie C. and Robert McCary.

Rosie attended Linwood School in Vaughan, MS. Upon graduation, she relocated to Chicago, IL. She worked as an inventory specialist for Walgreens for 25 years.

Rosie made Chicago her home for 64 years. During that time, she acquired many dear friends: Aretha Boatman, Sylvia Jackson, Erma (Jean) Dandridge, Barbara Jackson, and many, many more.

But there were three that touched her heart the most. She called them her "boys" ... Joseph (Joe) Jones, Jason Johnson, Justin Johnson, whom she loved dearly. Not forget JoJo and Lenia who loved on her every day.

She also leaves to cherish her memories, two sisters: Mae Moorehead of Yazoo City, MS, and Maxine Moorehead of Jackson, MS; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

REVELATIONS 21:3,4

"With that I heard a loud voice from the Throne say, 'Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and they will be his people. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.'"
