Celebrating THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF

"And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry. The former things have passed away." Revelations 21:4

Ryan Omega Johnson, 32, was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, on April 29, 1993, to his parents, Ternicko and Charice Johnson, during the early morning hours while on the way to the hospital. He was one of six children in the family, including brothers Ternicko Cohen, Rakeem Denton, Raysean Johnson, and sisters Cornelia (Michael) Washington, Rayauna Johnson.

Ryan attended Bramble Elementary, Mount Washington Elementary, TCP World Academy, and Lighthouse Community School, graduating in 2016. He studied agriculture and auto mechanics, spending many hours disassembling household appliances and automobile parts, enjoying the challenge of putting them back together.

Ryan had a deep love for his family. At family gatherings, everyone was always welcomed with a warm hug. When Ryan hugged you, you could truly feel the depth of his affection. He was genuinely concerned for others and wanted to help everyone. Every time he greeted a family member, he would ask, "Are you okay?"

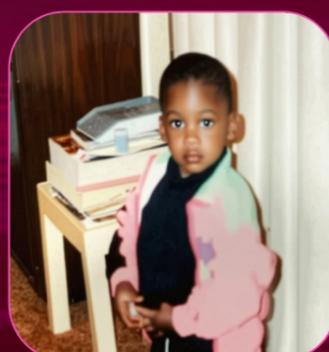

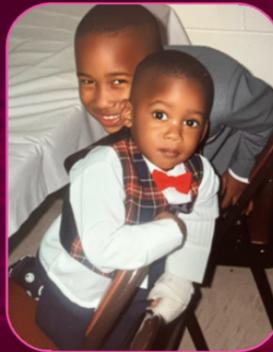

Ryan was set to marry Jaciva Conwell, and he loved her deeply. Together, they had two children: Karsyn Omega Johnson and Karmyn Lynee Johnson. In total, Ryan was the father of seven children, and he cared for them very much, often speaking about their future together. He is survived by his children: Joe'el Johnson, Josiah Johnson, Chase Ameer Thompson, Karter Elliot Johnson, and Khalia Janelle Johnson. He also leaves behind his parents, Ternicko and Charice Johnson; his brothers and sisters; his grandmother, Valarie Johnson Davidson; and a large number of aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Ryan was a remarkable young man. Since his passing, many people have reached out to the family to share how Ryan touched their lives. He was a good friend who offered help in various ways, including cooking meals for them. Ryan had friends who considered him a brother.

Ryan is preceded in death by his grandfather, Jerry Clay, and his grandmother, Brenda Yvonne Denton-Smith. Ryan will truly be missed, creating a void in our lives.
