

Psalm 23

1 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

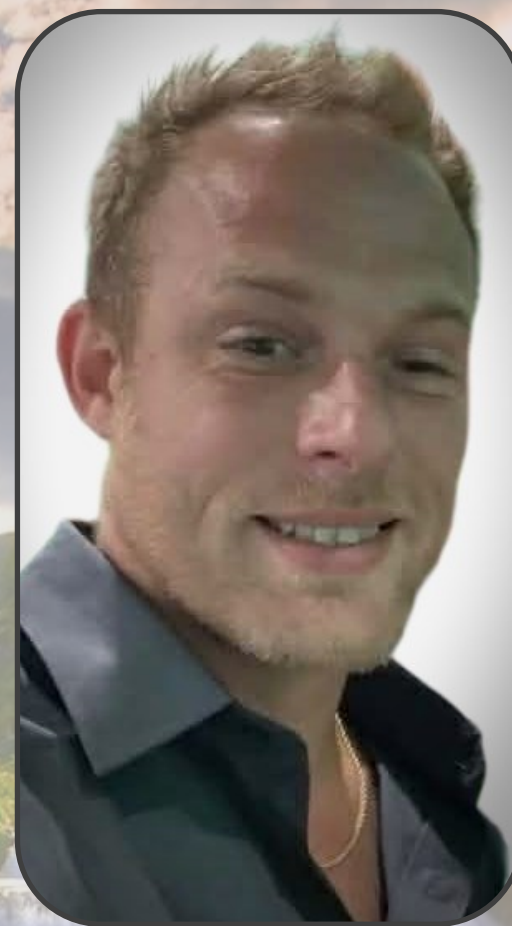

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Johnathon “John” Wayne Borland

Johnathon Wayne Borland, 44, of Columbia, MO, formerly of Sedalia, MO, passed away on Saturday, November 22, 2025, at his home in Columbia. He was born on September 28, 1981, in Sedalia, the son of Matthew W. Borland (Tonya) and Annette E. (Harrison) Ferolito (Nick), who all reside in Sedalia.

On April 14, 2007, in Patton, MO, he was united in marriage to Jami (Fulton) Borland, who resides in Columbia, MO. From this previous union, they had two wonderful children, Kolby and Brynn.

John was a man known for his big heart, sharp wit, and an unwavering devotion to the people he loved. He grew up in Green Ridge and Sedalia. Later in life he moved to Columbia where he continued to carry with him a strong work ethic and a desire to lift up those around him. John spent much of his life working with and investing in people - especially through his involvement with GrassRoots, where he found not only purpose, but also a second family. He had a special gift for connecting with others, encouraging them, and offering guidance during some of their hardest moments. His mentorship changed countless lives, and he will be remembered for his compassion, honesty, and willingness to walk alongside anyone who needed a friend.

At home, John’s greatest joy came from being a father. He loved Kolby and Brynn fiercely and was proud of the young people they are becoming. Whether he was cheering from the sidelines as their tee-ball or soccer coach, offering guidance from the stands, or simply being there to admire their talents, he was unwavering in his devotion to making sure his children always knew how deeply they were loved. John also cherished time with his extended family and lifelong friends, many of whom he continued to stay connected with no matter where life led him.

He found peace in the outdoors and carried a lifelong devotion to the animals who shared his journey. He grieved greatly after losing his beloved dog Bubba earlier in 2025 and shortly after John’s passing his beloved Early Girl “Earl” passed. He leaves behind his cherished companions Panic, Duke, and Lilly, who brought him unconditional love and companionship.

He enjoyed good conversation, good music, and good company. John had a contagious laugh and a personality that filled any room he walked into. Those close to him will forever remember his humor, loyalty, and his ability to make people feel seen, understood, and valued.

Guided by a genuine entrepreneurial spirit, John devoted himself to building events that united people through food, music, art, culture, and a shared sense of community. His creativity and passion flourished in the Germination Festival, Mid Mo Canna Expo, Cultivator Cup, Canna Cup, Buds, Blues & BBQ Festival, Stakz, and the many game nights he joyfully hosted at his shops.

In addition to his parents, John is survived by two children, Kolby Borland and Brynn Borland, both of Columbia; two sisters, Elisia Krotzer (Eric) of Johnstown, PA, and Rachelle Linn (Andrew) of Buford, GA; his maternal grandmother, Dorothy Harrison of Sedalia; a half brother, Zachary Borland of San Antonio, TX; a step-sister, Julie Seiz of Phoenix, AZ; his long-time mentor and friend, Rolando E. Barry (Teresa) of Columbia, MO; and numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins; his companion Kristin Breuer of Rolla, MO; and his beloved GrassRoots family.

John was preceded in death by his maternal grandpa John Harrison, his maternal great granny Nettie Tenholder; his paternal grandparents, Wayne and Barbara Borland and Alma and Neil Calkins; his aunt, Sonia Fall; and his uncle, Jeff Shipley.
