Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room;
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little – but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me – but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home
Miss me – but let me go.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to friends we know
and bury your sorrow in doing good deeds
Miss me – but let me go.
