

“From what I know about Ed, he always rode a pretty good horse, his handshake meant he was your friend and he always took care of his own. He had a gentle way about him and never left anyone in need. He was very capable and could do whatever was asked of him. It’s hard to place the words because I think they have all been said, but a good man left us, better than we knew we could be. Ed was a good man, He was a cowboy. So, when the wind blows on the prairie or the Heavens open up with a good hard rain, we’ll know it’s Ed out there in it, not looking for anything easy, just being Ed, because God made him a cowboy”.

In Loving Memory

Edward Vernon Moran

September 1, 1940 ~ April 19, 2026

When I Am Gone

When I am gone release me
 Let me go, I have so many things to see and do
 You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
 Be happy that we had so many beautiful years
 I gave to you my love
 You can only guess how much you gave me in happiness
 I thank you for the love you each have shown
 But now it's time I travel alone
 So grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must
 Then let your grief be comforted by my trust
 It's only for awhile that we must part
 So bless the memories within your heart
 I won't be far away, for life goes on
 So if you need me, call and I will come
 Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near
 And if you listen within your heart you'll hear
 All my love around you soft and clear
 And then when you must come this way alone
 I'll greet you with a smile and say
 "Welcome Home."
