We extend warm appreciation to each of you for the love, care, and special attention that has shown and expressed in the life and death of our loved one. Special acknowledgements to all that showed extreme acts of kindness and care, from resources in nursing homes, and hospital stays. ## The Broken Chain

We little, you knew the day that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly. In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you. But you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with You, the day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories. Your love is still our guide.
And though we cannot see you. You're always at our side.
Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again

Her Legacy...

Slena Teresa Moody, age 66, went home to glory on September 15, 2025. Slena was born on October 29, 1958, to Joseph Lewis and Aretha Lewis-Haywood. She was a native of Jacksonville, Florida and a graduate of Andrew Jackson Sr. High School, class of 1976. She worked for Winn Dixie Stores for many years. Later in her life she obtained certified CNA training.

Slena dedicated her life to Christ at an early age in 1976 and had been running for the Lord ever since. She was a member of the Church of the Acts under the leadership of Reverend Alvin and Pastor Robbie Hansley, where she was an anointed and awesome vessel of God and served in many capacities. She loved all unconditionally and always shared the word of God. Slena was a faithful, loving, and passionate wife and mother, aunt, sister, cousin, and grandmother. She was an encouraging and loyal friend to all. Though the life she lived spoke for her, she spoke and stood as a woman of dignity, loyalty, and integrity until her last breath. It has truly been a great blessing and an honor to have her in our lives.

Slena is survived by her loving and devoted husband: Freddie Lee Moody; son: Freddie Lee Sanders; grandchildren: Mishael Sanders, Arquella Laster, Trenyce Burns, R'kel Laster, Iyonna Sanders, and Yara Martin; siblings: Henrietta J.
