AMOS BARNER

SEPTEMBER 28, 1963 ~ APRIL 24, 2025

On September 28, 1963, Amos Barner was born to his loving mother, the late Mattie C. Barner, and made his transition from labor to reward on April 23, 2025.

Amos grew up with his siblings in Paterson, NJ with a lot of love and awesome memories. He attended John F. Kennedy High school and later earned a GED. Known as the man with many talents, Amos could draw anything and he was an unpublished author. Amos read almost anything from self-help to history books, and if you needed someone to play cards with he did that very well too. On any day that there was a sporting event on television he would yell for someone to turn the game on.

Amos was as talented as he was loving. His enormous, golden heart will forever be remembered by everyone he encountered.

Amos doted on his only child, Haneefah Barner, and grandchildren Omar and Omaria "Missy", who affectionately named him "Donut". He did anything that he could to show his Snook Nook, O-Block, and Missoleelopoo just how much he absolutely adored them.

He was proceeded in death by his mother Mattie Barner, his brother James Barner, his sisters Frances "Frankie" Barner Roberts, Diane Barner, Bobbie Ann Smith, brother-in-law Charles "Peter" Andrew Smith, and companion Lisa Stamps.

Amos is survived by his daughter, Haneefah Barner, and grandchildren Omaria and Omar Purvis. His brothers Rodney and Kevin Barner, and sisters Theresa and Tamyca Barner, an aunt, Ernestine Richardson. All of his nieces and nephews especially Damali, Khalilah, Shanavia, and Madison Smith, Jinja Smith- Hunt (Christopher), Tamyra Young (Donnie), Nia and Ikia Barner, Keyara Maxwell and Lailah Chambers. His nephews Donte, Alphonso, Maurice, and Wayne Barner, Deonte and Josiah Mitchell, and Raysonne Smith. A host of cousins, extended family, and friends.
