The life and legacy

Marrian Jeanette Goodwin, affectionately known as “Shinny”, was born on May 31, 1957 in Gadsden, SC. She is the daughter of the late Margaret Goodwin Smith and the late Charlie P. Williams. She departed this life on March 26, 2026, at Prisma Health Richland Campus, after a brief illness.

Marrian was educated in Richland County public schools. She was a proud graduate of Lower Richland High School, class of 1977. She was employed with the University of South Carolina at the Russell House, KFC, and Olympia Mills. At an early age she was baptized at Zion Benevolent Baptist Church.

Marrian was a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and sister. She was known for cooking her famous dressing at Thanksgiving time. She was an enthusiastic giver, who loved to listen to other people’s problems and give wise advice. In her past time she enjoyed spending time with family.

Marrian Jeanetta Goodwin was preceded in death by her daughter, Electra LaWanda Goodwin.

She is survived by her two daughters, Crystal (Tyrone) Goodwin, of Gadsden, SC, and LaKeisha (Donald) Noble, of Spartanburg, SC, Special friend, Major Jackson, of Hopkins, SC; three grandchildren, Adrian T. Goodwin, Taylor D. Goodwin, and Jaeda K. Solomon; great-grandchildren, Adrian H. Goodwin, Ayden T. Goodwin, England Sims, and Kween Cunningham; brothers, Herman Goodwin, Fletcher (Deborah) Goodwin, Tyrone (Robin) Smith, Anthony (Debra) Smith, Deacon Joseph Davis, and Ernest (Louise) Days; sisters, Annie (Roosevelt) Sumter, Evonne (Harry) Ogwin, Barbara Smith, Sherry (Daniel, Jr.) Green, Veralie Smith, Jackqueline (Bruce) Sumpter, Glenda (Ricky) Halter and Linda Harris, along with a host of nieces and nephews.

Tribute

You were the heart of all we knew,
In every hug, your love shone through,
so sweet, so kind in all yours ways,
You filled our lives and shaped our days.
You loved your family, strong and true,
And gave use more than we ever knew,
Though we must say our last goodbye,
Your love will stay, it will never die.
